JOLIET LOYALTY

Joliet High, we're always loyal,
To thee we'll e'er be true;
With a battle cry of "Onward;"
We will fight for Gold and Blue
Rah! Rah!

Joliet High is on to battle;
We will conquer every foe.
We have a fighting spirit;
On to Victory we will go.

CLASS AND IVY DAY SPEAKERS

First Row—W. Bartling, E. Johnson, C. Schumm, E. Sykes, B. McCallum, J. Levin, I. Howell.
Second Row—J. Bush, T. Camp, H. Benson, F. Cobb, C. Stevens, D. Ranno, W. Howard.

CLASS SONG

By Edwine Sykes, '29

Come let us sing a song of joy
Before we leave these halls today
Where we have had so much of happiness
In work as well as play.
We'll sing a song of hope and cheer
Of modern youth who are so fine
And stand for truth and loyalty,
The Class of '29.

The days we've spent together here
We never shall forget.
Though fate be bright or fate be drear
Along life's highway met.
We'll spread the story of thy fame
Along our paths where'er they lead;
For thy dear name will e'er inspire
Our every thought and deed.

CHORUS

All hail the class of '29,
The truest and the best!
In all life's future battles
We'll surely meet the test.
All hail to the dear high school!
Loved memories of you we'll hold
And e'er be true in future years
To our dear blue and gold.

CLASS HISTORY

By Janet Levin and Irene Howell

TIME—Seventh and eighth periods, a month before graduation.

PLACE—Any class room that is not being used.

JANET: Gee, I don't see why they pawned this work off on us.

IRENE: I guess they thought we were good natured. Anyway, let's get it over as soon as possible.

JANET: Well, we might as well get started. Let's have something different this year. It certainly took a long time to collect all that material. Say, Miss Wright gave me a grand idea. She said that our year book was to be in the form of a movie. Why couldn't we write up this history as a scenario.

IRENE: That's just the thing. Wouldn't it be fun if we could have real movies taken of all the notables in our class? But let's get busy on this writing. You know all the high class movies have prologues. Our prologue can show our class as Freshmen coming into the new building, weighted down with all the honors we received in grade school. We were such a quiet little class that we didn't need organizing, but by the time we were Sophomores we needed a committee.

JANET: The first reel can show the Sophomore committee, and the characters can be Bernice Ristau, Charles Matteson, Luba Kabakovich, Bennett Bates, Clara Schumm, Allan Sproat, Hannah Johnson, Alfred Long, Eleanor Carlson, and Russell Wunderlich, whom we had the good sense to elect for that committee. We'll have them "fluttering around" like the butterfly favors they had at the May party which they sponsored in 1927.

IRENE: Then a caption can indicate that a year has passed. For the next two hundred feet of the reel I think we ought to show the Junior committee. That cast would include Bernice Ristau, Bob Harris, Francis Cobb, Dolly Barber, Ted Henvick, Janice Jones, Janet Levin, Audrey Mills, Beatrice Scotland, and Harold Smith. A full shot can show them clowning at the circus party they gave in December, 1927. We ought to take a close-up of Dolly Barber, secretary-treasurer, and Bob Harris, president, as they lead the grand march. We can have the same cast in the Million Dollar party, which was the Junior-Senior prom; that was the cutest party. Don't you remember that George Brummond went up to Miss Wright and said, "I've been coming to high school parties for eight years and this is the best one yet." Say, you know Miss Wright and Mr. Hufford surely worked hard helping us to make that such a grand party.

JANET (they read over work): For the last 100 feet of the reel we can have our present Senior officers. Jimmy Bush is president. (Don't forget to spell his name with a "y.") Then we have Dolly Barber, vice president, Clara Schumm, secretary, Alfred Long, treasurer, and Billy Howard, chairman of the social committee.

IRENE: Oh, we ought to bring the Vitaphone in on our band. That would make our scenario so up to date. Then everyone wants to hear our band, which won the National championship in 1926-27-28 and the State championship in 1924-25-26. One-fourth of the concert band, which won the three National championships and the 1925-26 State titles, was made up of our class. We had some of the band soloists in our class, too. We can have a close-up of Don Loeffler, with his bass horn, Russ Engelhart and his French horn, and Benny Powell tooting on his cornet. Bob Harris and Glenn Henderson would make a good close shot with their French horn and Cornet. You'd think Bob came from

ADVICE TO JUNIORS

By William Howard, '29

EXTINGUISHED JUNIORS:

Mr. Haggard asked the senior class to give you juniors some worthy advice that will help you in the coming year or years of your high school career. He mentioned many reasons for giving advice, one of them being, that we had been here for four years; but as I look around at the juniors, who have made themselves so conspicious by their absence, I see that most of them too have seen four years of high school already. Now you juniors that have been here four years and have been spending your time at the Goodie Shop had better mend your ways very soon, or it will take you four more years to get out of high school.

The present senior class has made many marks in this wonderful institution. Of course we do not expect you juniors to be able to equal them, but unless you have a high mark to shoot at, you will never get off the ground. We have "Pug" Rentner, the only twelve letter man that ever graduated from this school and Jimmy Bush, the man with the basket eye and the honor roll brain. Just look at the wonderful record our soloists of the National Championship band have made. Glenn Henderson, the world's best cornetist, Bob Harris, the world's best "Peck Horn" player, Ed Tomastic, the world's best Hoboe player and Tom Camp, the best Baboon player. And just think juniors, out of our class of 265, not one of them has ever flunked in gym or lunch; now isn't that a record to be proud of?

You juniors have many people in your class that you can be quite proud of. For example, Miss Delander. You seem to claim her, but you all know that she belongs to the present Senior class, and it was we who raised her so that she could win the National Beauty contest. When she came back you juniors looked so hopeless and down in the mouth, that we thought we would let you have her to bolster you up and keep you going. We have noticed that Dolly Wagner has not been as successful in the street car business with her new Chevy coupe. Now if she would only put the top down and put a few spots on it, such as Russell Wunderlich's Ford, I am sure her business would increase. I think you juniors all know that College is a wonderful thing, especially for the ones who stay at home; for you should just notice how "Peg" Fargo's and Dolly Wagner's grades have gone up since a couple of boys have gone to Illinois. There is one more thing that you juniors can be criticized for, and that is the loss of locker keys. Why, it's perfectly terrible the way you lose these keys. Ethel Scotland loses on an average of three per week. Now that must surely stop, for keymakers aren't used to having money thrown at them so fast.

There are also a few precautions and some helpful hints that I should like to leave with you about certain teachers and school rulers. If you come in late, never fail to bring Miss Kolhagen Fannie May Chocolates, for these are her favorites; and if these are presented you will never get nights. Mr. Spicer: if you go into his office always have a good story ready, for if you know a better one than he, you will be safe. Mr. Deam: if you go to see him prepare to look like Lon Chaney, for if you can wear a more grieved or thoughtful look than he, you will be sitting easy. Miss Lawlor: oh! oh! how she likes gum. She likes gum so well that she will take it away from a poor freshman and send him to the office. Miss Dicky: if you haven't heard about her, she'll soon tell you who she is, and what you're going to do for her. Mr. Patterson: if you're ever going to ditch either ditch where he'll never be able to go, or else when he's sick, for he sure has an eagle eye for J.T.H.S. pupils.

In spite of all these failures you have made and in spite of all the things you have been doing wrong, there are a few in your class who would make very worthy seniors. For example, Harriet Benson has spent her time to a good advantage and its effects are shown very effectually, So, seeing you have a few lamps in your class, I hope they will light the way for the rest of you, and keep the high standards of J.T.H.S. ever burning.

REPLY TO SENIORS

By Harriet Benson, '30

Of course, the Juniors are extremely grateful for the advice our esteemed Seniors have given us. It remains only to be seen how we may possibly profit by it. But we must say we admire your proficiency in the art of satire, which has just been so capably displayed for our benefit. However, though we had nothing more for our guide than a belief in Social Evolution, we should be positive of the superiority of our class.

Shall I rescue the Juniors from the dust, whither you have so elegantly laid us, or more wisely mention just a few of your own numerous blunders?

Oh, I admit that your physical abilities are unlimited. But then we are all proud enough of our stars to even forgive them for being Seniors. And we're "getting up" in the world rapidly now, so I've a hunch that by the time we reach your exalted position, our achievements will quite equal yours. You cannot possibly doubt it? And then, too, the whole school is not graduating this year!

Now you take our mental developments. Why, we have some of the wittiest, clever minded, most alert students in the school. Really, we have. Of course, we haven't reached that "Lazy Stage" in our high school careers yet, so that may account for some of our diligence. We're original, too, don't you know? What about our young movie producers? Just name any of your Seniors who could have even thought of such a complicated plan as organizing a movie corporation!

Then, lest you forget, it was our "Dolly" who won the laurels for being such a keen shot. And she's only one of the many Junior R.O.T.C. Sponsors.

Then, I'm afraid you'll have to admit, we Juniors take the prize for beauty, too. Isn't "Lois" one of our up-and-coming class? Incidentally, the Sponsor of the Band is a Junior, too.

As for "Social Prestige," the popularity of the Juniors is remarkable. Don't you remember how many Junior girls were featured in the Spectator this year?

Now we know that your Senior Play is a peach, and that it would make a hit with any audience, but who ever saw any play directed by "Dickie" that wasn't? So we aren't a bit worried about your play being at all superior to the one we contemplate staging next year.

As for the success of next year's J High Journal, you just watch the dust fly when we begin digging up personals, jokes and news! I prophesy the Year Book will be a realization of Miss Hunt's dream. Hope it is!

We hope you realize that these efforts have as their aim that you may not under-estimate our genuine value, and unconsciously, over-estimate your own!

In spite of all this, however, aside from the fact that we cannot conceive how you may possibly have fallen into such a state of utter hopelessness, we really do wish you sincerest good luck in your work beyond J.T.H.S.

PRESENTATION OF THE BETSY ROSS FLAG

By James Bush, '29

Amid an assembly such as this, one year ago today, this star-decked emblem was entrusted to the class of 1929. Its red stands for the blood our forefathers shed for their freedom, its white stands for purity as a nation, and its blue stands for the loyalty and devotion of its subjects.

Fifteen years ago this Betsy Ross Flag was presented to the senior class by the local chapter of the D. A. R. It has been entrusted to each senior class since then, and thus we are aware of the duty placed upon us, to love, to honor and to revere it.

It is my pleasant duty, as the president of the senior class to present this flag to you, the Class of '30, to cherish and protect it through the coming year, and to present it to the class of '31 unmarked by any stain of dishonor. May you prove to be worthy of this trust.

ACCEPTANCE OF THE BETSY ROSS FLAG

By Cathryne Stephens, '30

We, the members of the class of '30, feel honored and delighted to accept this Betsy Ross Flag. We promise to protect and cherish it during our year as Seniors and then to pass it on to the class of '31. We shall strive to attain throughout our lives the high ideals for which it is an emblem.

IVY DAY POEM

Berniece McCallum, '29

What is the reason, Ivy,
That you climb walls so steep,
When you could live your life as well
If 'long the ground you'd creep?

The Ivy softly whispers back:
"Today I start my life;
The earth is my foundation here
For this unceasing strife.

"I'll start this very day to climb;
I'll do what is my best,
And with God's ever helping hand
These great heights I shall quest.

"The reason then, that I now climb
Up walls that are so high,
Is just so I'll be near to God
When time it is to die."

And thus, the Ivy spake no more;
The thought was left complete,
That we must work and do our best
If we wish Him to meet.

This fragrant Ivy, here so small,
Will live though centuries pass,
And we shall always hold it as
A symbol for our class.

And may God's blessings fall on us
As falls the glistening dew,
And shower us with nobler thoughts
That make our hopes come true.

So when our judgment day arrives
We'll leave here with a smile,
For God shall greet us with these words:
"Your life has been worthwhile."

IVY DAY ORATION

By Dominic J. Raino, '29

Throughout the history of the world it has been the custon of man to erect a monument as a memorial to an occasion of special importance or great significance. These monuments are of many forms and of varied nature. The Egyptians erected great pyramids to the memory of their deceased kings, and engineering feats stand out as monuments to the achievements of the engineers who created them. It is just and proper that a fitting monument be dedicated to occasions which have a significant meaning. However, we are dealing with the living rather than the dead, and therefore in view of this fact we have chosen as a monument for our class that which is symbolical of life. We, the class of 1929, have today planted this ivy, which shall rise up as a memorial to the occasion of our passing from this institution which has served us so well in the past.

This ivy, which now appears very frail and lacking the strength to combat successfully the ravages of the elements which shall undoubtedly attack it, is symbolical of our class. This frail twig that has been nurtured in the past by its parent must now rely on its own resources. It can no longer receive further aid and nourishment from its parent. It must now carry on with the strength which was instilled into it by that parent. This ivy, which stands before us is confronted with the problem of overcoming all obstacles and reaching the goal of maturity and beauty for which it is intended, or to fall before the onslaught of its natural enemies and wither away, its mission in this world lost forever.

In order to succeed and carry out its purpose, this ivy must meet and overcome all the obstacles that will be pitted against it. It must struggle always upward, never retrogressing, but always gripping with a tenacious hold on this wall, making stepping stones and rivets from the very obstacles which hindered its growth, until at last it stands forth in all its beauty, lending charm and enchantment to this structure.

Classmates, this ivy is symbolical of our class. It carries a special meaning for all of us. We too, are in a position very similar to that occupied by this ivy. Fellow classmates, we are on the threshhold of a new life and of new experiences. Our source of strength, the nucleus of our success, lies in the education and benefits given to us by our beloved Alma Mater. We realize that from no other source, excepting perhaps our home, has there been or will there be so much influence brought to bear upon our lives as from our Alma Mater.

Classmates, we are now cut off from this vital fountain of strength; we must now rely on the strength that we have gathered while under the care of our school.

O Friends and Classmates; in order that we fulfill the expectations of our family and Alma Mater, we must fight over every inch of ground, regardless of the difficulties and obstructions which we may encounter. We must struggle always forward, never halting or going backward. We must go ever onward until at last we fulfill the highest expectations of our family and Beloved Alma Mater.

"An Errand for Polly" combines in one lively and quick-moving comedy the most attractive elements of the ideal play for amateurs. The story opens on the twenty-fifth anniversary of Dr. Rossmore's career as principal of the Riverdale Academy. Through the influence of Frost, the doctor, Rossmore is dismissed by the school Board as Principal. But in spite of serious odds, he fights his battles, and, through an errand for his granddaughter Polly, comes out victorious. There are various complications running through the story, but all ends in happiness and triumph.

Won't they make a good picture?

JANET: Pug Rentner, our famous star athlete, will take the leading role in the athletic reel. Let's have a close-up of him, because you know Mr. Becker said that as far as he could find out, Pug is the only twelve-letter-man the school ever had. He made the all-conference basketball team three years, and all-conference football two years.

IRENE: I'll tell you some others who ought to have several feet of the athletic film are Steve Bisching, who made his letter twice in football and Ellsworth Zinser and Walt Lindstrom, who made their letters in heavyweight basketball this year. Herman Eisenstein and Floyd Schauland made letters in football this year, too. Ray Shannon made his letter in track two years ago. Arnold

Nelson and Sam Emdin were granted major letters in tennis in 1928. Gee, that's something to brag about. You know Mr. Kirby said that usually small letters are given in tennis, but they were granted majors because they won second place in the state finals.

JANET: We'll have to have another close-up of Jimmy Bush; he won four letters, and he was the high scorer in basketball in 1929. Louie Seppi, who got two lightweight and two heavyweight football letters would film well in a semi-close-up. Ned Bush, Leo Brown, and Rodger Hunter, our fighting ponies, got their baskeball letters. They'll have to be in on this scene with Mike Dejanovich, Robert Henry, Lloyd Racster, Billy Howard and Clarence Douglass, who received lightweight letters in football.

IRENE: Most really good pictures have fighters. Our picture can't be the exception! We can have a full view showing Captain Charles Schwab, Captain Leonard Biskie, 1st Seargeant B. Arthurs, and Cadet Captain Alburn Smith drilling their companies. There are thirty officers in our class. You know our R.O.T.C. made us an honor school when the organization had its officers from Presenting latest athletic news fresh from the J.T.H.S. Campus. Football, Basketball, Track, Tennis, and G. A. A. Activities have held sway over the student body during the past year.

COACHES
Front Row—Fargo, Kirby, Wykoff, Wills, Becker. Back Row—Hufford, Cates, Shedd.

THE YELL LEADERS

Stewart Hutchison '29, Benny Powell '29, Elmo Schork '30, and Ray Shannon '29, are the yell leaders this year. These boys were chosen by Mr. L. B. Aseltine when a number of students were given tryouts in the auditorium. At pep meetings which were held before basketball or football games, each boy who wished to have a tryout led the students in a yell. The leaders who received the best response from the audience were chosen.

The purpose or aim of the yell leaders is to keep the school spirit and enthusiasm at any time and especially before any athletic contest.

Werner Swain, the freshman yell leader, who recently was drowned had shown signs of being very promising material for a next year's yell leader, according to Mr. Aseltine.

YELL LEADERS
Paul Jones, Elmo Schork, Benny Powell, Stew Hutchison, Ray Shannon.

HEAVYWEIGHT FOOTBALL

For the second consecutive season Joliet majors finished in second place in the Big 7 conference. Facing the season with a green line aside from the tackle, the Blue and Gold improved steadily, finishing with 7 games won, one tied and two lost. Injuries handicapped the plunging end of the game, but the passing and open field gains sent the team down the home stretch a winner.

MORGAN PARK

In the opening game Joliet easily overwhelmed Morgan Park 32-0. "Pug" Rentner ran 82, 63 and 15 yards for three touchdowns. Busch, Bisching and Seppi also scored.

ENGLEWOOD

Oldani got away in the opening minutes for 80 yards, the touchdown being called back. A hard, driving attack placed the ball within scoring distance, Busch making the touchdown. Englewood scored on a pass, the game ending 7-7.

FENGER

With the line working better, Fenger lost, 19-0. Hardy's recovery of fumbles and 48-yard run was a highlight.

ROCKFORD

Joliet lost the conference opener on the Rab field, 10-6. Cassioppi of Rockford scored early in the first quarter, after we fumbled on the 8-yard line. Later weak side bucks by Seamans and Rentner worked the ball to the Rab 10-yard line. We scored on a pass, Rentner to Busch. Pug punted outside on the 4-yard line and Palmer immediately kicked a field goal. Kelly's work at tackle was outstanding.

FREEPORT

A pass, Brewer to Sullivan, sent the Pretzels away to a 6-0 lead. Joliet rallied, a 40-yard pass, Rentner to Seppi, scoring the first touchdown. Pug returned a punt 65 yards for the second score. A pass and Bisching's buck scored twice in the second half, Joliet winning 27-12. Vicious tackling by Van featured.

ELGIN

A steady bucking game behind a powerful Maroon line, spelled defeat at Elgin, 20-6. Rentner's 90-yard run in the closing minutes was our only score. Oldani's inside tackle smashes gained many yards, while Van's work at center was excellent until forced from the field by a serious injury.

LINDBLOOM

The second string played a strong game against the Lindbloom Sophs, winning 19-0. A much needed rest put the regulars in shape for a driving finish.

EAST AURORA

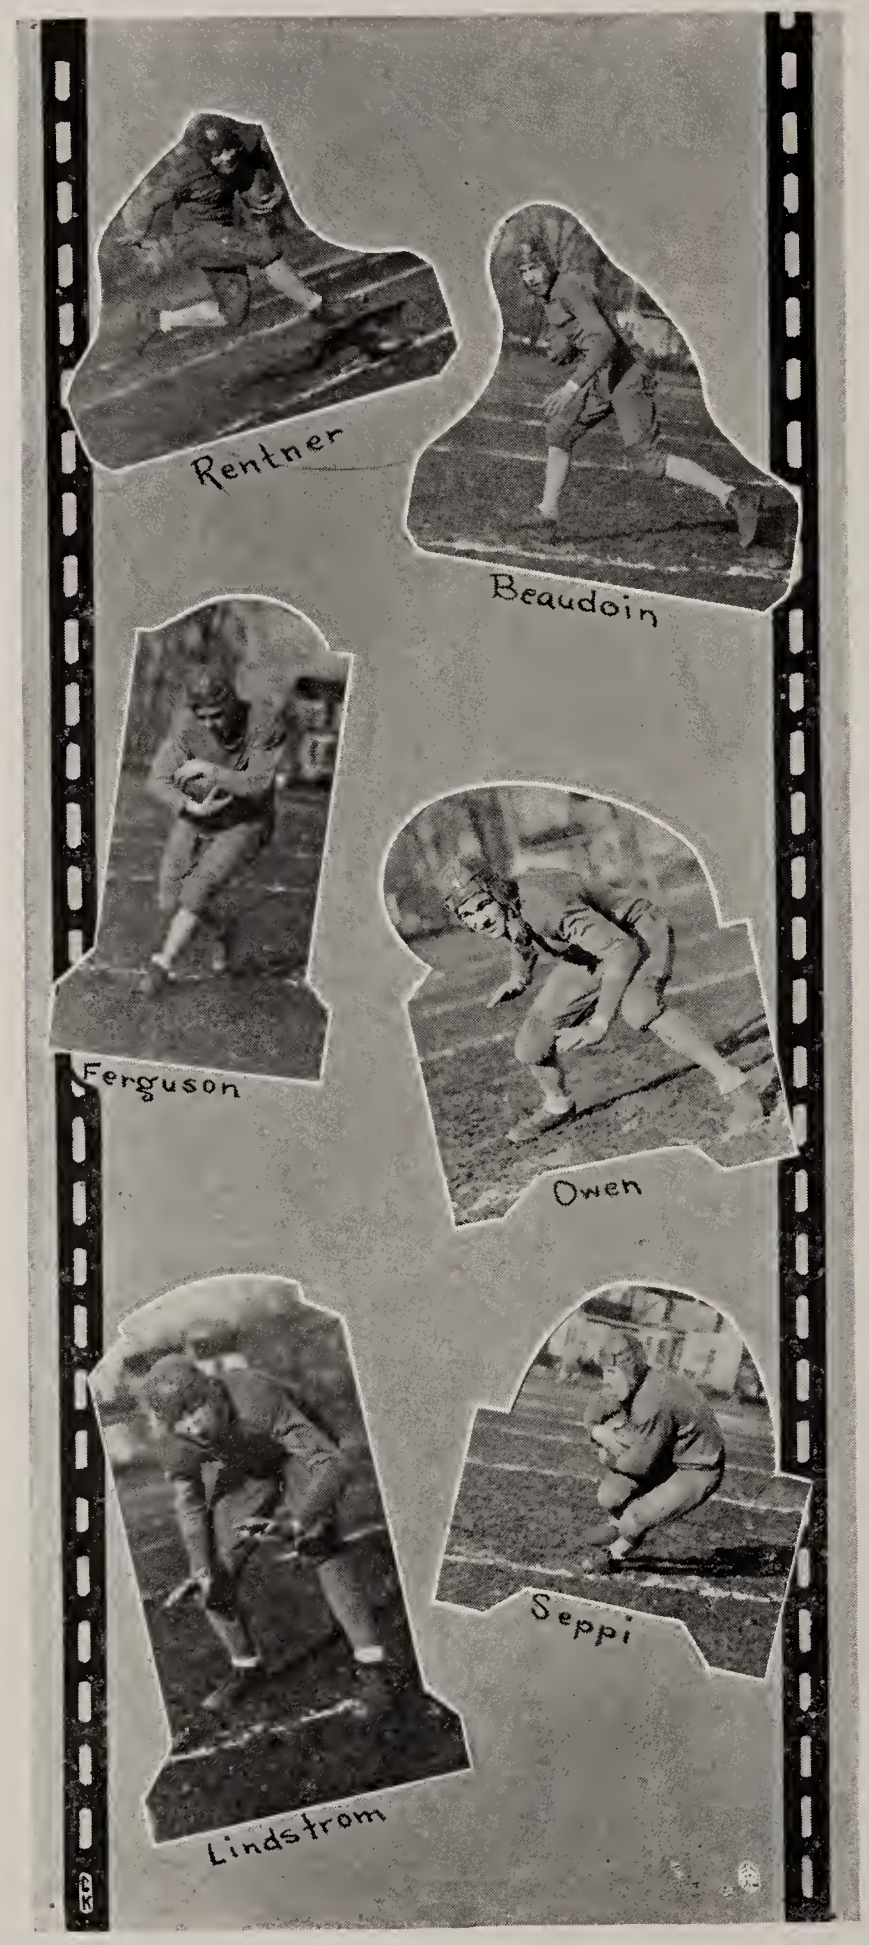
On a muddy field at East Aurora, Joliet beat the team that spoiled their chances for the championship last year, 13-6. Driving line play scored first for East High. A pass, Rentner to Kelly, with the goal kick put us ahead of them. The feature of the day was "Pug's" 98-yard run through their entire team for the last touchdown. Clark, a substitute back, showed to advantage.

WEST AURORA

Led by Alexander, West High came to Joliet confident of victory, but with our revised line they were unable to make a first down. Joliet's backfield ran the ends and hit the line like a championship team. Rentner, Bisching and Seppi carried Joliet's burden, the final score being 20-0. This was Coach Becker's first victory over West High since he came to Joliet. Fritz, Owen, Sabotnik and Kelly were outstanding in line play.

DE KALB

Celebrating their last 1928 game, the Joliet majors swamped DeKalb 51-0. Rentner scored three touchdowns, Seppi two, Busch, Oldani and Sing each one. Sabotnik, transferred to guard, wrecked a large share of the Barb play. Fritz at center, Kelly at tackle and Ferguson, used as a blocking back, played hard driving games.



RENTNER

All-conference back. Best open field man and passer in conference. Also good blocker and tackler. Leading scorer on team. Returned three punts during season for touchdowns. Chosen one of six best backs in state.

BEAUDOIN

A substitute back, who made good when his chance came in the Elgin game, due to regulars who were crippled and ineligible. A fair tackler and punter.

FERGUSON

Lots of drive, either in line or backfield. Started at guard and then moved to a blocking back. Improved as season progressed, DeKalb being best game. Blocking his biggest asset.

OWEN

Steady and a willing mixer. Good at diagnosing opposing attack. Good tackler and blocker. Freeport and Aurora his best games. More weight would make him a tough lineman.

LINDSTROM

Hard driver, who played at both end and guard. Sure tackler, who could absorb plenty of punishment. Played best against DeKalb.

SEPPI

Injuries handicapped him all season. Excellent blocker and hard tackler. Speed made him good pass receiver. Best game against Freeport and DeKalb.

KELLY

All-conference tackle. Hard charging player, equally good on offense or defense. Good football head. Played brilliantly against Rockford, Freeport and West Aurora.

JONES

Substitute guard and tackle. Best defensively. Lots of speed, with a fast charge across line. Should make a name for himself next season.

VAN

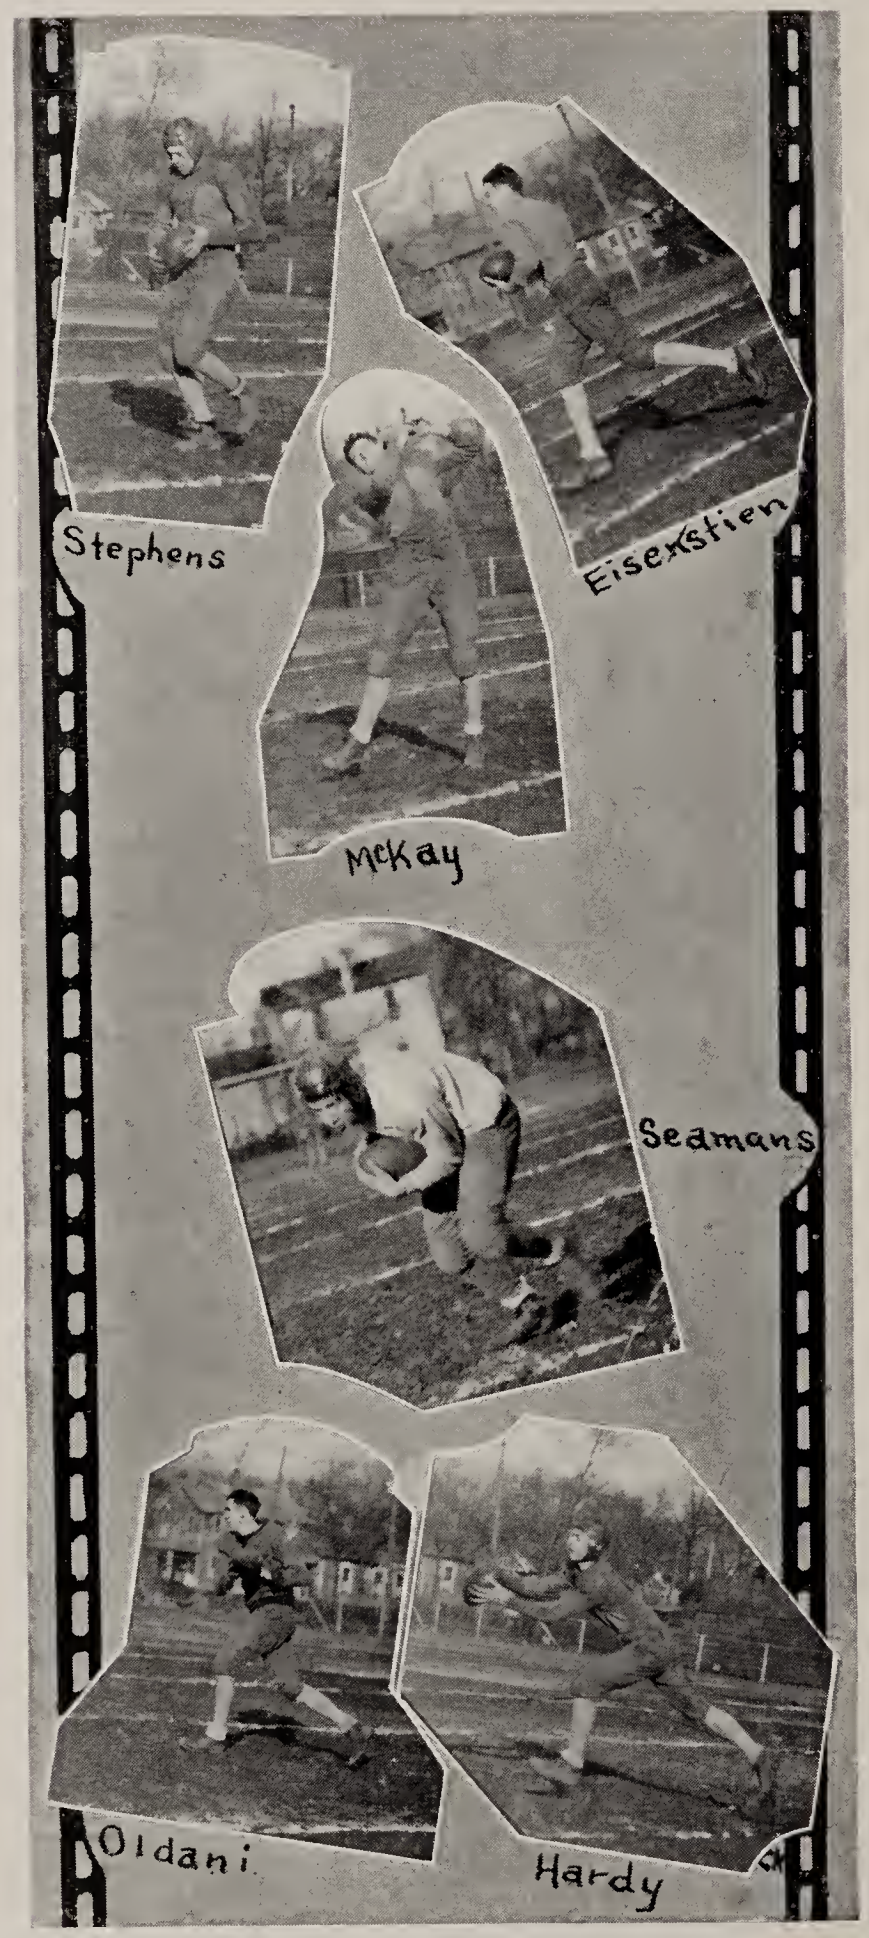
Though handicapped by serious injuries was probably the hardest tackler on the team. Played brilliantly against Freeport, being the backbone of the line play. Accurate passer who will be missed.

BISCHING

Hard tackler and blocker, slowed up by injuries. Good pass receiver. Work in Aurora games best during season.

SABOTNIK

Moved from tackle to guard, where he improved rapidly and bolstered weak spot. Chosen all-conference guard. Played best against West Aurora and DeKalb. A deadly tackler.



STEPHEN

Freshman end with a good charge. Plenty of reach, which, with more experience should make him outstanding wingman next season. Fair punter.

EISENSTEIN

Another end, defensive work outstanding. Tackles so you can hear him hit them. Best game against Freeport.

MC KAY

Most shifted lineman on team, from guard to tackle to end. Good blocker, who needs only experience. Best games against the two Aurora teams. .

SEAMANS

Substitute fullback who needs experience. Speed an asset. Ball carrying at Rockford best during season.

OLDANI

Alternate at end and halfback. Lightning jabs off tackle gained much ground. Good open field runner and pass receiver. Elgin and Freeport were outstanding games.

HARDY

Substitute end, with fair passing ability. Good ball hawk, recovering several fumbles during season. More speed will help his game.

BARR

Worked his way up from the scrubs. Made good when given a chance at right tackle. More speed should make him valuable lineman next season.

SCHAULAND

First year on squad, made letter as substitute guard. Best offensively. Lack of weight handicapped him against big men.

CLARK

Substitute halfback who needs experience. Fair punter. Plenty of drive. Relief work in East Aurora game creditable.

BUSCH

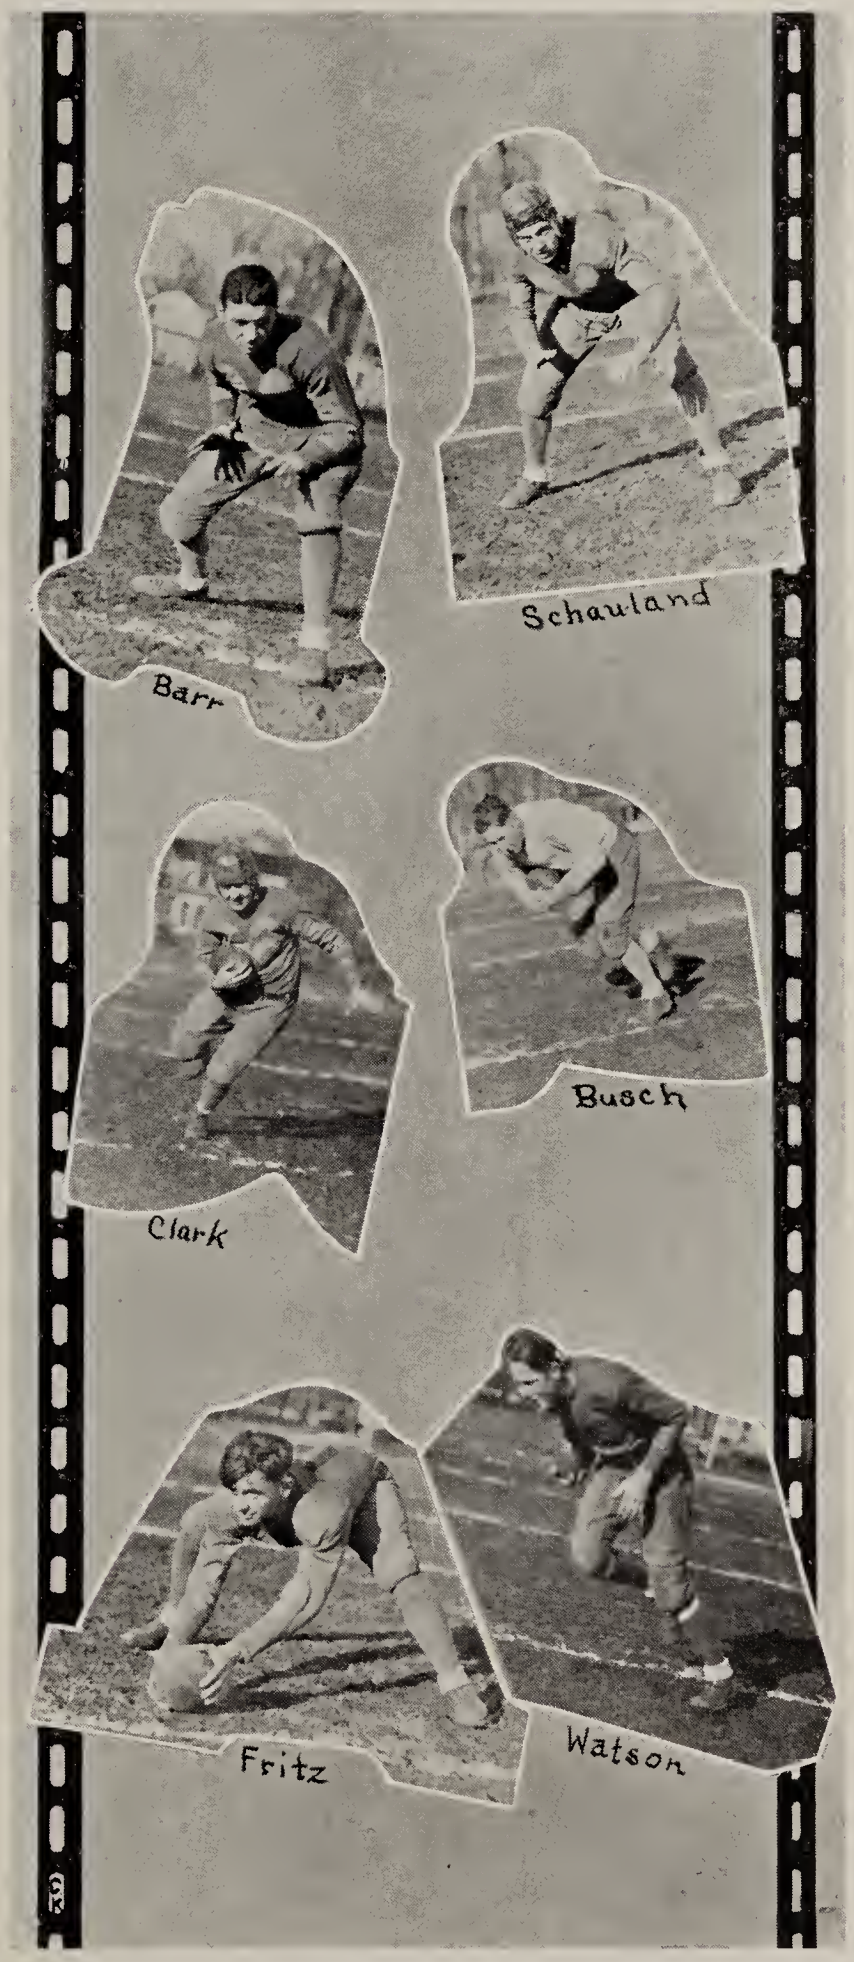
Receiving end of a pass combination that gained considerable ground. End runs best offensive weapon. Chosen second all-conference back.

FRITZ

Freshman, who volunteered at center when Van was injured. Played Rockford game with two nights' practice at position. Improved with each game. Hard charger and vicious tackler.

WATSON

Light, but aggressive end. Best on offensive. Relief work in East Aurora game noteworthy. Good receiver, fair passer and punter.



FOOTBALL REMINISCENCES

Fourth Row—Soave, Dejanovich, Beadle, Hughes, Palmer, Henry, Rajala, Coach Wykoff, Brown, Sahler, Jones, Maxwell, Schmidt, Swenson, B. Howard.
Third Row—Orlovich, Moriss, Spencer, Davis, Fleming, Hutchinson, Deitz, Murray, Zattau, Booker, McEwan.
Second Row—Washer, Wells, Knight, L. Howard, Bryson, Austin, Pennuto, Menozzi, Racster, Lang, Lazeverotiz.

LIGHTWEIGHT FOOTBALL

Coach Wykoff's call for football candidates was answered by about 150 boys. The ponies got away to a good start but lost two of their last games and ended up in a tie for second place in the standing.

PLAINFIELD

In the first game of the season, Plainfield bowed to the ponies 20 to 12. The second team had the situation well in hand most of the time, but the first team had to save the day twice when Plainfield tied the score.

MORRIS

The Morris team came to Joliet. The lights had a battle on their hands all the way as they were outweighed ten pounds to the man. Booker and Oliver broke away several times for long gains, but they were unable to score. The final score was 0-0.

FENGER

On September 29 Fenger High visited Richards Field, but they left on the short end of a 27-6 score. Oliver, Booker, Menozzi, and Henry carried the ball over the end line for the Gold and Blue touchdowns.

ROCKFORD

Joliet took its first trip to Rockford a week later and won the game with a 12-0 score. Joliet's first touchdown was scored when Booker snared a pass and scampered over the goal. Oliver made the other one. He zigzagged 30 yards for the last counter of the game. (Continued on Page 220)

MAXWELL

Playing right tackle after playing guard the previous season, Max had a lot of fun breaking things up, and he did excellent work throughout the season.

MURRAY

A guard who will probably make some one work for a place next year.

AUSTIN

A backfield man who will be with us next season, and he should keep up the good work started.

PENNUTO

As understudy to Booker he did not get the chance to show up. He will undoubtedly show up well in 1929.

LANG

Should be the best center in the conference next year with the experience gained this season.

WASHER

A utility man who will probably be a punter in the 1929 season.

B. HOWARD

A lineman who made life miserable for his opponent.

L. HOWARD

A regular guard with weight and determination that would win him a place on any team.

SMITTY

A regular of last year, who was handicapped with an injured leg which was finally found to be broken. At that he was on the field the entire season.

BOOKER

A first string man for four years, he added more glory to his past record. He was captain of the team, and for a second time he was selected on the all-conference team.

DEJANOVICH

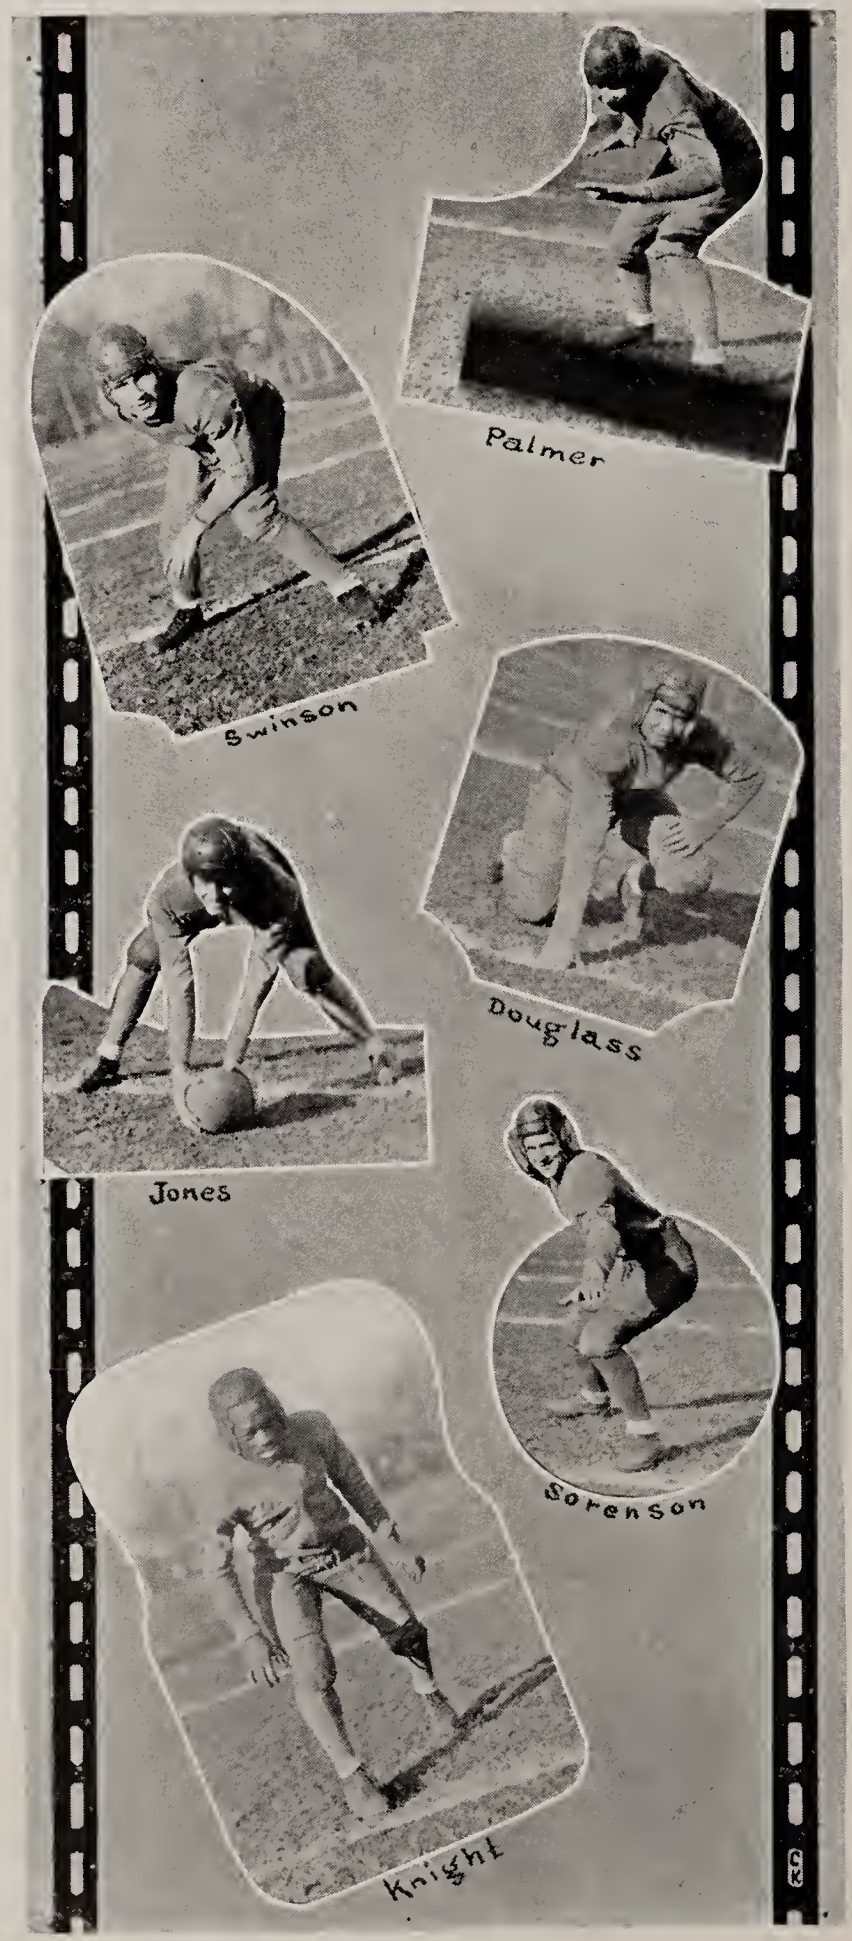
Tall and slim "Mike" added strength at tackle. His attitude was his greatest asset.

RAJALA

Played his first season as regular at fullback. He is very adept at blocking.

STEWART

A player who should be heard from next season. He was a substitute at guard.



PALMER

At tackle he had the weight and drive, but he lacked the experience to compete with the regular tackle.

SWINSON

"Is in the Navy now." We hope he serves our dear Uncle as well as he served us.

DOUGLASS

Had the primary requisite of any football player, the ability to be "fighting mad" through the entire game.

JONES

At center he did not get much chance to show his ability, but when he did, it was nothing to be ashamed of.

SORENSON

A guard who could give a good account of himself when called upon.

KNIGHT

At left tackle Jerry was consistently in behind and stopping things before they got started.

DAHLEN

Saved us many yards with his outstanding ability of following down punts.

HENRY

Could pass, kick, and run. He supported the team at end and half whenever the opportunity offered itself.

MENOZZI

A halfback with speed and drive. He has experience that should stand out next season.

RACSTER

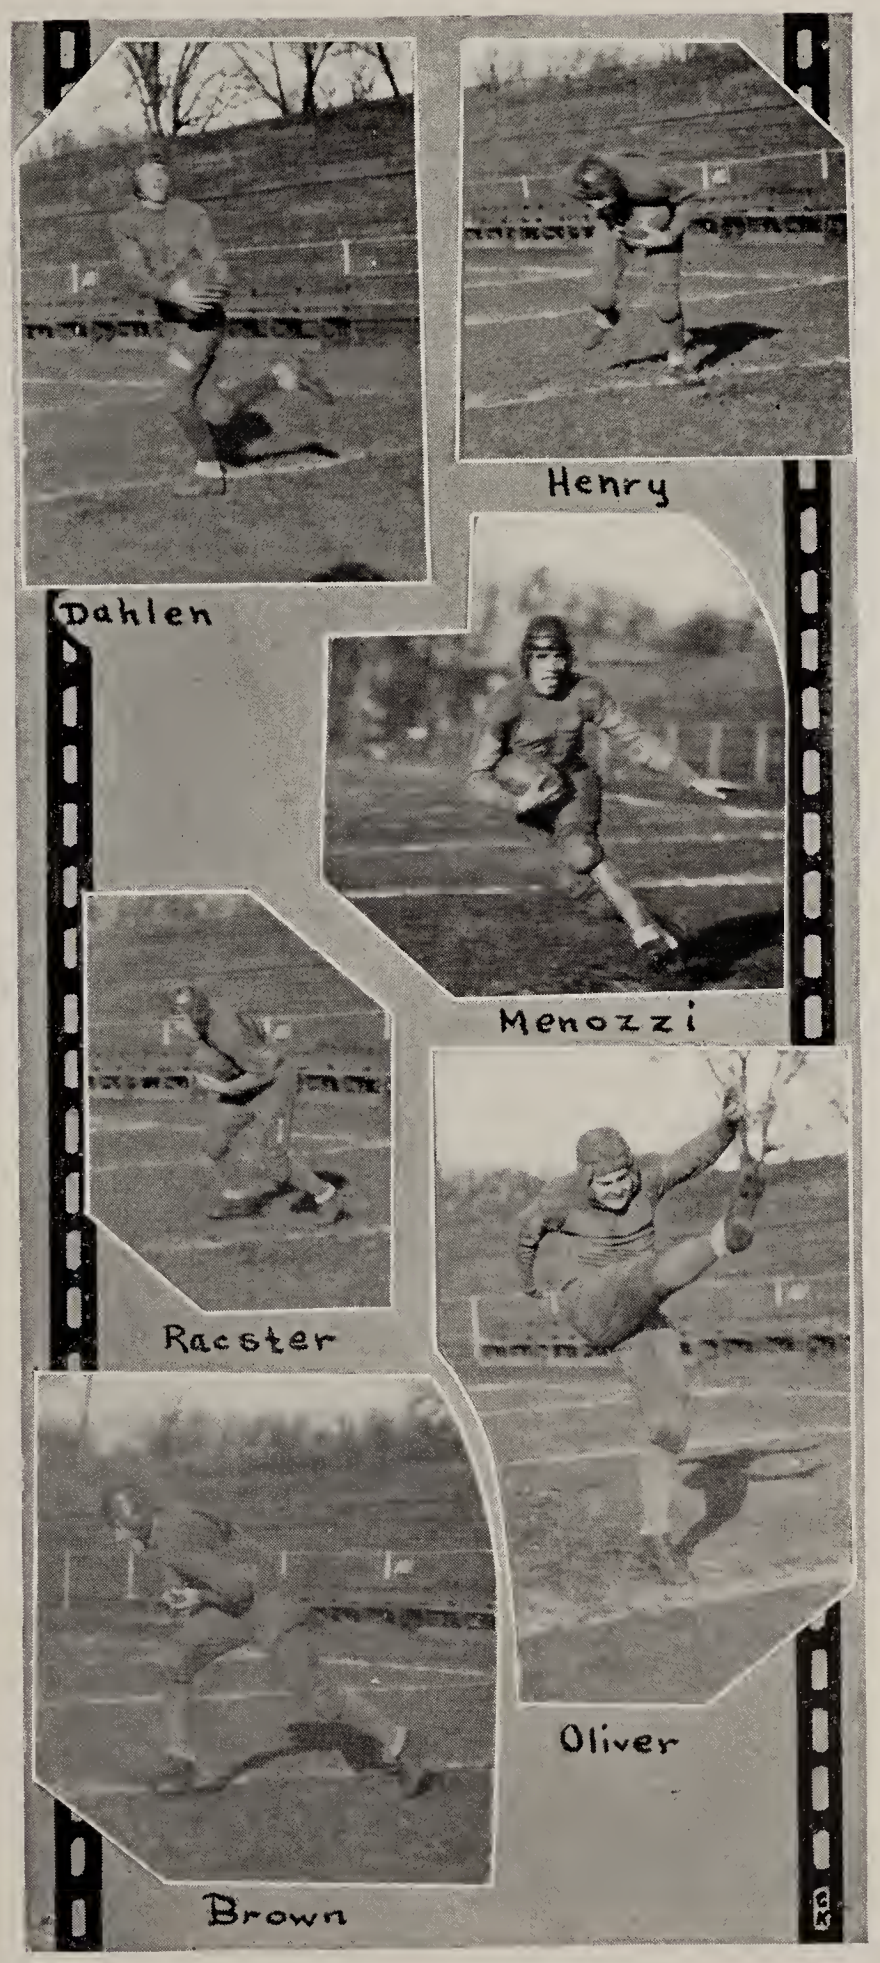
At left end his willingness and attitude made up for his lack of weight.

OLIVER

Another lightweight with four years' service. He is an all-conference halfback, and he finished his career by adding to his already outstanding record.

BROWN

Our punter for the past two seasons. He always gained us yards with his well directed kicks.



First Row—Barr, Secor, Arnold, Hardy.
Middle Row—Ricker, Booker, Bush, Kelly, Rentner, Maxwell, Oldani, Lindstrom, Zinser.
Third Row—Coach Becker, Seamans, Watson, Killeen, Stephens, Beaudoin, Flannigan.

HEAVYWEIGHT BASKETBALL

Slow in developing, the team again finished as runner-up in the conference race, and flashed brilliant tournament form. With only Rentner and Bush as regulars from last year, the offense proved effective in the pinches. The defense tightened as the season progressed, and the team finished by winning three-fourths of its games.

ELBURN

Opening the basketball season, Joliet heavies turned back Elburn 27-9. Coach Becker used 19 men, and they were never in danger.

CRANE TECH.

In the second of the holiday games, we defeated Crane 18-14. Our defense proved better in the pinches and our passes more accurate.

HARRISON TECH.

For the third straight victory of the season we downed Harrison 17-14. Joliet led 9-2 at the end of the first quarter, when Becker took out his first string. Leading by a single point with a minute to play, Bush and Rentner were sent back and "Jimmy" dropped the winning points through the net.

GARDNER

The Joliet second string played at Gardner, losing 30-15. Zinser and Lindstrom each got four points to lead our attack.

LINDBLOOM

Led by Oldani and Bush, Joliet defeated Lindbloom 18-16. We trailed at the quarter 6-2, but led at the half 9-6. We gradually pulled away to victory in the second half.

First Row—Delonas, Melin, Beecher, Brown, Hunter, Menozzi, Bishop, Washer, Schmidt, Austin.
Second Row—Coach Wykoff, Farr, Foster, Carloss, Bush, Mattei, Heggie, Percissiti.

LIGHTWEIGHT BASKETBALL

"Big Seven Champs"

Coach Wykoff started the season with only five lettermen: Hunter, Delonas, Menozzi, Schmidt, and Brown. At first things weren't so bright, but as the season grew so did the team and it ended a successful season of winning 10 out of 14 games, and another Big Seven Championship.

ELBURN

Joliet lights opened the basketball season December 21, by defeating Elburn 33-15 in an easy game. Coach Wykoff used 17 men, and he got an idea of how powerful his team was under fire.

CRANE

Playing the second game of the holidays, Joliet came out on the long end of a 22-14 score on December 26.

HARRISON

Harrison Tech defeated Joliet minors 14-8 in a very lifeless game. Harrison got the lead of five points and stalled. They stalled for five and a half minutes in the third quarter. The Joliet ponies didn't seem to be able to get started.

GARDNER

Joliet traveled to Gardner January 4, to win 15-14. Coach Wykoff didn't take the first string of men, and the second did the job just as well as the regulars. Bush and Carloss were leading scorers with 6 points apiece.

LINDBLOOM

Joliet lights lost their second game of the season to Lindbloom by a score of 22-20. The lights led until the final period when Lindbloom became hot, and they

All-conference center. Control of center tip important factor in team play. Excellent defensive man. Last minute baskets won from Freeport, Elgin and De-Kalb.

LINDSTROM

Substitute center, whose all-'round play improved as season progressed. Good man under basket. Work against Wheaton most creditable of entire season.

RICKER

Substitute forward, with good eye for basket. More aggressiveness, plus this year of experience should make him valuable man next year. Good free thrower.

OLDANI

Steady floor man with good defensive ability. His four baskets in last five minutes practically won game against Freeport. Played well against Morris.

BUSH

Led team in scoring. Second all-conference forward. Tournament play most brilliant of season's work. West Aurora and Morris were his outstanding games.

BOOKER

Substitute guard, with a world of speed. Ball hawk, whose interception of passes was uncanny. Outstanding game during tournaments was Calumet City.

ZINSER

Substitute guard, whose ability to take guard from backboard made him valuable asset. Never brilliant, but steady and reliable, with excellent floor pass.

MAXWELL

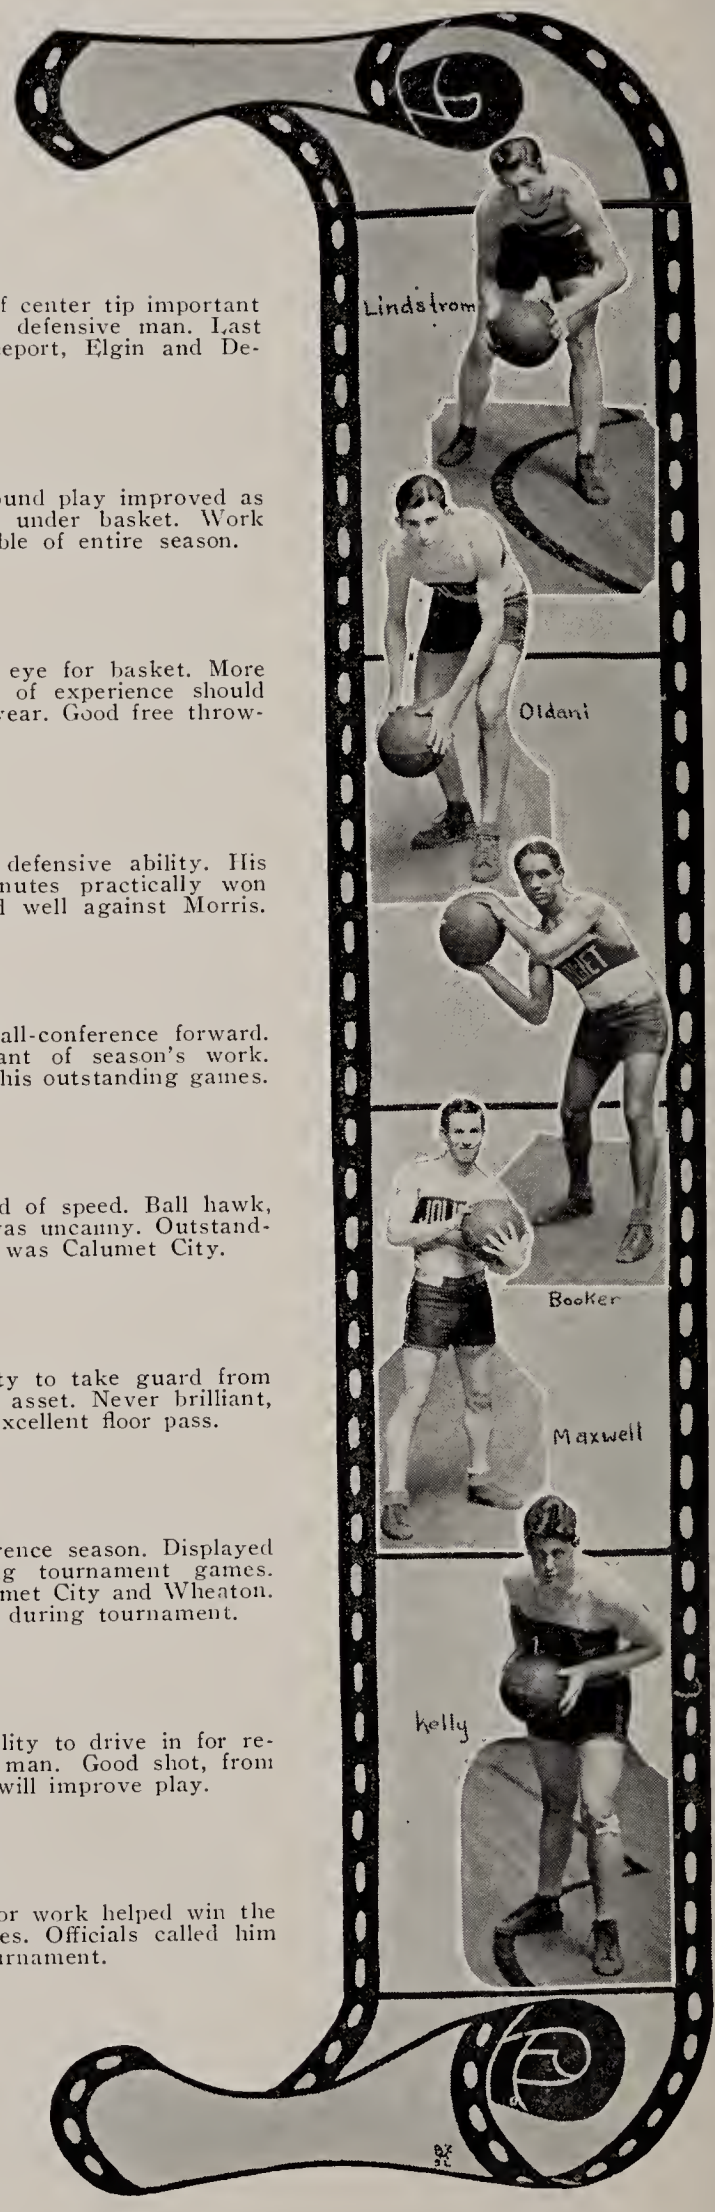
Slow developing during conference season. Displayed vastly improved form during tournament games. Played brilliantly against Calumet City and Wheaton. Perfect record on free throws during tournament.

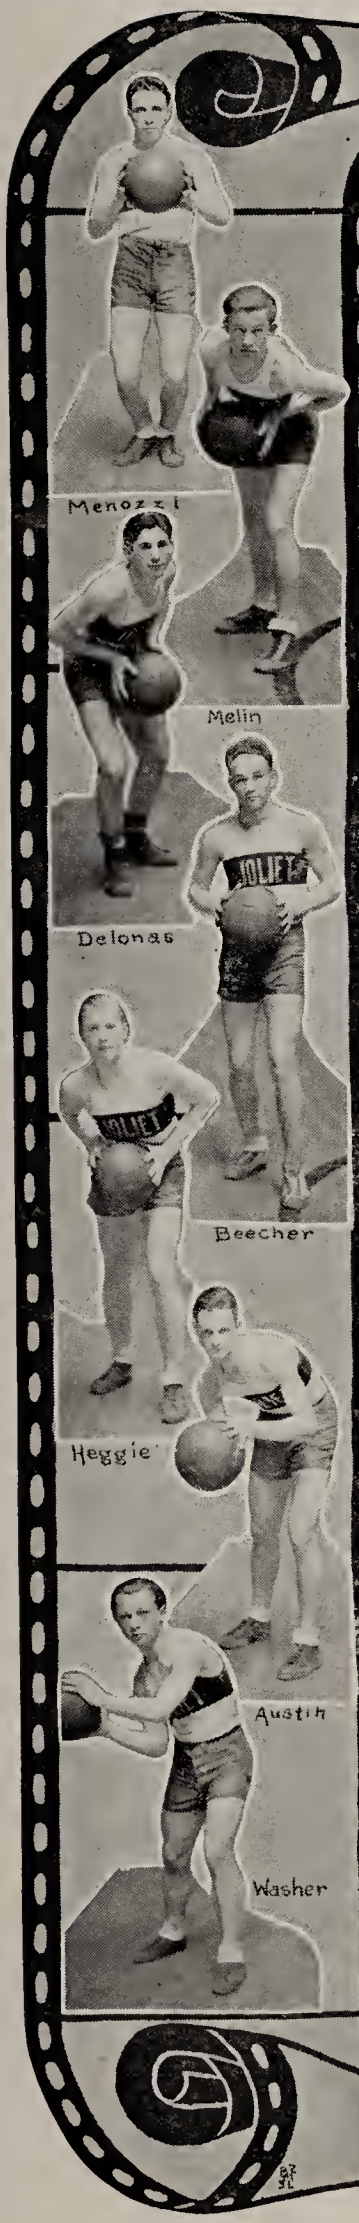
FLANNIGAN

Substitute forward, whose ability to drive in for rebounds made him good relief man. Good shot, from field or foul line. More speed will improve play.

KELLY

A plugger, whose brilliant floor work helped win the Elgin and West Aurora games. Officials called him best guard on floor during tournament.





MENOZZI

At forward "Lyc" was consistent with an average of three baskets a game, and was an all-conference selection.

BROWN

Another all-conference selection playing at center but really a guard; was an excellent floor man; was a main cog in the championship team.

MELIN

Who needed and gained experience; should be an asset next season.

SCHMIDT

A support at guard who will probably pass on to the heavies for next year.

DELONAS

The boy who served at the Elgin game with three long shots will be out in front again next year and should show up well.

ROSS

A recruit from Indiana who will be in the play again next year.

BEECHER

Probably a heavyweight next year; has a good eye and scored a lot of points for us.

BISHOP

At forward and another all-conference man; will be with the team again next year and should add to his glowing record of the past season.

HEGGIE

With experience gained should give a good account of himself in the future.

MATTEI

A guard who shows promise of making someone work for a position in the future.

AUSTIN

A forward with a good eye; and the experience gained this year should put him up with the best next season.

BUSH

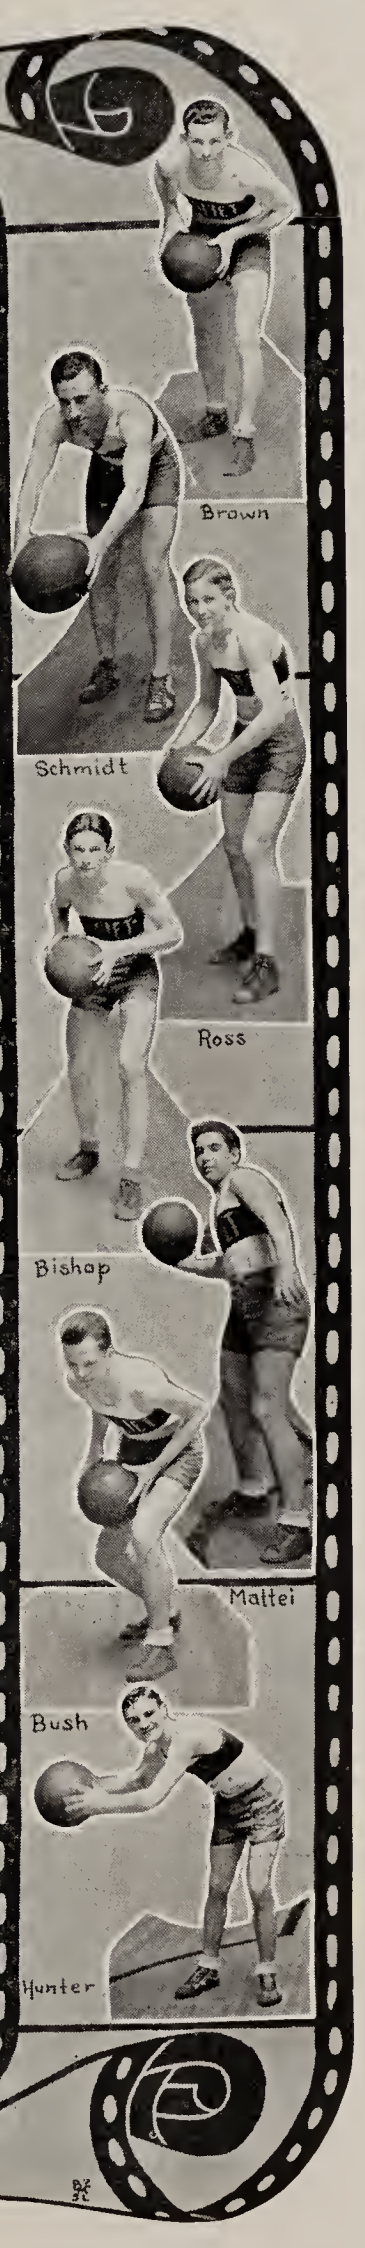
A senior who was a utility man playing all positions and could be depended on at all times.

WASHER

Really a football man, but still he gave a good account of himself.

HUNTER

Called "Shadow" by some and "Streaked Lightning" by others was an all-conference man and will be missed by the fans on account of graduation.



Front Row—Coach Becker, Bush, Kelly, Rentner, Maxwell, Oldani.

DISTRICT TOURNAMENT

Joliet displayed a smooth attack and tight defense to win their first tournament game from Blue Island 41 to 10. Rentner, Bush, and Flannigan led the offensive. Blue Island was held without a field goal the first half, the score being 17-1. The entire squad, consisting of Capt. Rentner, Bush, Oldani, Maxwell, Kelly, Lindstrom, Flannigan, Ricker, Booker and Zinser, played during the game.

Playing one of the best games of the season, the Blue and Gold defeated Calumet City, 38-13. Capt. Sacco kept the purple in the running with his baskets in the first period, but soon after Joliet pulled away, leading 19-8 at the end of the half. Kelly opened hostilities with a long one, followed by Bush and Rentner in quick succession. Stepping on the throttle in the third period, Joliet ran the score to 27-8, while holding the purple scoreless. The reserves played most commendable ball during the last quarter, scoring eleven points to the opponents' five, Lindstrom, Ricker and Flannigan making the points between them.

The semi-finals found Argo the opponent of Joliet. Oldani opened the scoring with a basket and two free throws, and Bush followed with another. Maxwell put on a little steam in the second quarter and the half ended 16-6. The reserves did the major share of the work the last half, and the final score was 23-8 in our favor.

The Blue and Gold won the district championship for the fifth consecutive time, defeating Morris in a hard fought game, 19-11, before a capacity house. Joliet was first to score when Bush slipped the ball through the netting. Morris did not miss a free throw the first half, and led in the scoring 8-7. Bush proved to be Joliet's offense, scoring 15 of the total points. Jimmy was all over the floor, and when they tried to stop him, they fouled him. Oldani and Rentner played brilliant defensive ball in the front court, while Maxwell added a basket and two free throws as his share of the offense. Kelly played a remarkable defensive game, holding Hayes, giant Morris center, scoreless. Both teams played an exceedingly tight defense, and it took accurate offensive tactics for either team to score. Fans agreed that the Morris team was the best they had seen here during the tournament.

SECTIONAL TOURNAMENT

A packed house greeted the Blue and Gold in the initial game of the sectional tournament. Harrison, conqueror of Morton's aggressive five, were the opponents. Opposing centers opened the scoring, and from then on Joliet pulled away, leading 16-11 at half time. Rentner with 7 points, Bush with 4, Kelly 3, and Maxwell 2, entered the scoring column.

Stepping on the throttle at the opening of the third quarter, the Blue and Gold put the game on ice. Maxwell was the shining light on the offense, contributing four baskets from all angles. Baskets by Bush and Oldani, and a free throw by Rentner, completed the scoring. Kelly played a heady defense against Petrulaitis, giant Harrison center, holding him to two baskets. With the final gun, the score board read Joliet 29, Harrison 20.

A nip and tuck struggle featured the semi-final game between Wheaton and Joliet. Wheaton, winner of the bye, took the game by making eleven out of fourteen free throws, while Joliet outscored them from the field, seven goals to six. Three personals on Capt. Rentner in rapid succession in the opening quarter placed Joliet at a disadvantage, and Wheaton led 6-2 at the end of the period, making every free throw, while "Pug" contributed a basket in the opening seconds. Two baskets by Maxwell and one by Lindstrom, put Joliet ahead. Then Plummer made two more free throws, and Wheaton added the visitors' lone basket before the half ended with Wheaton leading 10-8.

Battling furiously throughout the second half, the lead changed hands frequently. Maxwell and Oldani contributed free throws, while Bush added two baskets and Lindstrom one. With two minutes to go Plummer made his only basket of the game and also added two free throws. Wheaton maintained this lead by stalling, the final score being 23-19. Kelly's remarkable defensive play against Plummer, the Wheaton ace, and Maxwell's perfect record on free throws were high lights.

Wheaton continued its winning streak, downing Sycamore in the finals, 25-20. They were eliminated in the first round at state, losing a close battle to Freeport.

FREEPORT

Joliet opened the conference season at Freeport, defeating the Pretzels 29-28, in a thriller. Joliet led at the quarter, but again trailed at the half 13-10. With 5 minutes to play Freeport led 24-16. Oldani shot two baskets in quick succession, and Rentner was fouled while sinking one. He added the two free throws, and the score was tied 26-26. Feerport made two free throws, but Oldani tied it up with his fourth basket. Bush was fouled and made the winning point as the gun sounded. Kelly held Brewer, Pretzel star, to two field goals.

EAST AURORA

Joliet's first conference defeat was dealt by East Aurora, 26-18. We played poor basketball that night. Eastabrook and Spray led the East attack with 15 points between them, while Rentner tallied 11 of our points.

MARSEILLES

Trying out all kinds of combinations, Joliet won a slow game from Marseilles 17-12. Our defense held them to a single basket, while Maxwell led for us with 9 points.

MORRIS

A long shot by Schonert in the final minute lost a game for us at Morris 17-16, after we led all the way. Oldani led in scoring with 7 points.

ELGIN

In a game featured by two stellar defenses, Joliet defeated the Maroons 10-9, in two overtime periods. The game ended 8-8, and neither five scored in the first overtime session. In the second overtime period, Rentner sank a long shot, giving us the lead. Bush fouled Keane in the closing seconds and he made the free shot. Kelly's stellar defense at guard turned back the Maroon time and again, while Maxwell's three points led the tight scoring game.

DE KALB

Joliet duplicated the feat of the previous week at the Barb gym, winning 10-9. DeKalb used stalling tactics throughout the game, but were beaten at their own game. Trailing 8-9 with a minute to play, Rentner missed two free throws, but caged a short push shot. We stalled the remaining 30 seconds to victory.

WEST AURORA

With Jimmy Bush in tip-top basket form, we turned back West Aurora 25-22. Although we trailed at half time 13-10, we tied the score early in the third quarter, and from that time gradually pulled away. Bush totaled 14 points, while Kelly and Maxwell played a wonderful guarding game, and Oldani and Rentner fed accurately.

ROCKFORD

The Blue and Gold lost their share of the conference title when the Rabs beat them 19-17. Joliet led until the closing minutes, when Frankie Johnson scored two short shots and Bloomquist put the game away with his only basket. Johnson scored 14 of the Rab total, with Bush, Oldani and Maxwell sharing our points.

MORRIS

Joliet avenged an early season defeat, in a game preparing for tournament, winning 20-12, while exhibiting a tight defense. The reserves also beat the Morris seconds 22-21, in the closing seconds.

GARDNER

In the final preparation for tournament, we lost to Gardner 17-14. Flannigan led our scoring, while McNulty led the visitors.

LIGHTWEIGHT BASKETBALL (Continued from Page 93)

sank baskets from all corners of the floor which proved to be too much for the Joliet outfit.

FREEPORT

Playing the Freeport Pretzels in their first conference game, Joliet easily won 31-17. Joliet jumped into an early lead, and Freeport could not overtake it. Bishop and Menozzi got 17 points between them, and Hunter did some fine defense work for Joliet.

EAST AURORA

East Aurora played Joliet in the first home conference game of the year. The final score was Joliet 40 and E. Aurora 18. E. Aurora was on the low end of the score from the beginning, and they gave the Joliet reserves a chance to show their power. Hunter sank 5 baskets and 3 free throws for 13 points. By winning this game the lights had more than an even chance to win the championship in the lightweight division.

MARSEILLES

Joliet swamped Marseilles 26-8 in the lightweight game. Marseilles was leading 6-3 at the end of the first period, but they made only two points the remaining three quarters. The Marseilles boys were big, and it looked like an easy win for them, but Joliet became "hot" and Marseilles didn't score at all.

MORRIS

The Blue and Gold lights played one of the fastest games the Morris people had seen in some time on January 26. The Morris outfit was a heavyweight team, and the height of the boys was too great for the Joliet boys. George, six feet and two inches, Morris center, had things his way scoring 8 points for Morris, while Bishop scored 7 for Joliet. The feature of the evening was Harold Osbun, holder of several world high jumping records. He gave an exhibition between games.

ELGIN

Advancing another step closer to the Big Seven Championship, Joliet minors defeated Elgin 17-11 in a hard fought game. Elgin jumped into an early lead, and they led 5-3 at the end of the first quarter. Menozzi sank two baskets and Brown two free throws which put Joliet up to 9 points while Elgin got 5 points to lead 10-9. In the second half Joliet's defense tightened, and Elgin got one point while Joliet ran the score up to 17-11. Both teams showed powerful defense, but Joliet had an edge.

DE KALB

Joliet ponies continued their winning streak by trouncing DeKalb 24-15 in a game in which Hunter played a stellar game. Joliet started out with an 8-3 lead, but they became slow, and DeKalb's little forward, Skoghund, brought the score up to 11-9 still in Joliet's favor. Wykoff then sent in the second team to give the regulars a rest. Hunter led the scoring with 9 points, Menozzi 6 and Brown 4 points.

WEST AURORA

West Aurora upset Joliet's hopes for a clean slate by beating them 26-18. The Joliet boys had an off night, and they did not get started until it was too late. Abins led Aurora's attack with 11 points and Robinson was next. The defeat put Joliet in a tie with Elgin whom they defeated earlier in the season.

ROCKFORD

Finishing the season by defeating Rockford lights 20-14, Joliet won the Big Seven Title. Both teams had difficulty in finding the hoop, and they didn't get started until the half. Bohlem slipped in three baskets at the start of the second

1929 TRACK TEAM

The 1929 track team may be said to be the best since the Big Seven Conference was formed. Captained by Ernest Rentner, the team opened its season by defeating West Aurora in a dual meet with a score of 74½ to 56½. Following this meet the team took part in the Bradley Interscholastic at Peoria. Joliet placed fourth in the meet with a field of 63 schools entered. The half-mile relay team took first place in this meet. The Northeastern District Meet at Aurora was won by Joliet, the point winners being Ernest Rentner, Robert Stephen, William Booker, John Rajala, William Oldani, Gale Maxwell, Eugene Pennuto, and Lloyd Sing. The relay team composed of Sing, Oldani, Pennuto, Maxwell ran the 880-yard relay the following week at the state finals in the fast time of one minute thirty-four and five-tenths seconds, which is 2½ seconds faster than the conference record set by the Joliet team in 1924. At the state finals 6½ points were made by the Joliet team and 6 medals were brought home.

The track team finished its season by placing second in the Big Seven Conference Meet, losing to Rockford by 5 points. The conference meet proved to be a dual meet between Rockford and Joliet, these two schools scoring nearly 20 points apiece more than the nearest competitor.

Ernest Rentner wound up his athletic season in high school by breaking three conference records, jumping 5 feet 10¾ inches in the high jump, putting the shot 47 feet 10⅞ inches, and throwing the discus 130 feet and 7 inches.

The relay team broke the conference record, running the distance in 1 minute 35.4 seconds.

William Oldani ran the quarter mile in 52 seconds, which time is but .2 of a

"PUG" RENTNER

Time was, when Joliet wondered if she would ever possess an athlete whose ability in all three major sports would be respected by all conference opponents.

An all-conference selection in football for two years and in basketball for three years; holder of the conference record in the shot put, discus throw and high jump, and of the shot and discus records in the district meet, "Pug" Rentner has carved an enviable niche for himself in our athletic history.

As far as records show, "Pug" is the only twelve letter man in Joliet history. We will miss him next season, while conference opponents consider they are fortunate that he will be graduated. May his high school achievements be the inspiration to greater accomplishments in his university career.

HIGH SCHOOL TENNIS

Another successful year of tennis has passed. There were 32 entries in the singles, and 14 entries in the doubles tournaments.

Our first match was with the Junior College, on April 15. We won five of the seven matches.

The Chicago Heights match here, April 24, was called because of rain. The Barr-Austin team, however, defeated the Chicago Heights team of Clare-Greenburg (6-0) (6-1).

We won three of five matches from DeKalb, there, April 27th.

The Waukegan matches at Waukegan found us defeated in four matches of seven. After that we won all matches from West Aurora and Elgin.

In the 16th annual Interscholastic tennis tournament held at Champaign, May 17 and 18, our doubles team of Barr-Austin drew a bye in the past first round, defeated the Waukegan team of West-Emmons (6-0) (8-6) in the second round, and would have met the Parker team of Mahoney-Walling in the third round had not the tournament been called because of rain.

In the singles, Nelson of Joliet defeated Elliott of Austin (5-7) (6-3) (6-3) in the first round. In the second round Nelson defeated Weiss of Hyde Park (6-3) (6-4). In the fourth round Nelson was to meet Dagner of Sparta, but this match was also called because of rain. Ricker of Joliet, our other singles entry drew a bye on the first round, defeated Sapp of Ottawa (6-2) (6-4) in the second round, and was defeated by Vaughn of Lyons in the third round (6-2) (6-4).

Vice President ..... D. Kelly
Secretary-Treasurer ..... G. Maxwell

The Blue and Gold Club was organized in the year of 1923 and it is for boys who have won a "J" in one of the sports at J.T.H.S.

The purpose of the Blue and Gold club is for the students to give their opinion on athletic questions, and for a student representation on the school board.

During the district and sectional tournaments boys from the club are given jobs of looking after visiting teams while they are in the tournament. Each team having a boy to show them around.

GARDNER

Joliet lights defeated Gardner for the second time of the year 19-15. Wykoff used only those that will be back next year, and it looks as if another successful season is in the making.

THE G. A. A.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

President ..... Beulah Green
Vice President ..... Eunice Barnes
Secretary-Treasurer ..... Mary Capra
Social Committee Chairman ..... Bernice Wells

Sponsors ..... Phoebe Ann Kirby, Dorothy Westendarp

The purpose of the Girls' Athletic Association is to promote interest in girls' and school athletics, and to standardizeideals of health and sportsmanship.

The G.A.A. is a member of the State League association.

Every girl in the G.A.A. has an opportunity to make a class team in hockey, basketball, volleyball, tennis, baseball, track, and field. Inter-class tournaments in these sports are held at the end of each season.

Swimming classes practice at the YMCA every Friday. Here the girls learn to swim and dive. The Red Cross Life-Saving tests also are given in the "Y" pool

The girls receive monograms for obtaining a certain number of points. These points are received for participation in supervised sports, as a class team, for unorganized sports, as hiking, swimming, and skating; and for keeping training rules, and for passing the Red Cross Life-Saving tests. A gold J on a circular blue background is awarded for 600 points; a gold J.G.A.A. on a large circular blue background for 1200 points; a state league award, a blue I.G.A.A. on a triangular white field for 1600 points; and the highest state league award, a blue I.G.A.A. on a circular white field for 2000 points. Small monograms are given for individual sports, as a gold basketball with "29" in blue.

The G.A.A. also has a well developed social program. The annual dance was held in April. It was an open house, Spring Sport dance. A Freshman welcoming party in the form of a track meet was held at the beginning of the school year. A hockey-basketball banquet is held every year. Also a Mothers' and Daughters' tea is held every May. At this tea the awards are given to those who have earned them during the past year.

For one week every June the G.A.A. camp is held at Bowen Country Club near Waukegan. Swimming, tennis, basketball, baseball, archery, dancing, and golf are taught. Teams from each school are chosen and tournaments are held. The school having the highest number of points is given a banner. The best individual camper also receives a banner.

THE TERPSICHOREAN CLUB

The Terpsichorean Club composed of twenty-five high school and junior college girls, aims to develop dancing as an art; to master the body as an instrument of beauty; to stimulate the imagination by a deeper appreciation of good music; and to broaden the social capacity of the individual.

The anual spring dance program was given in the auditorium May 11. The dancing classes and the class in tap dancing assisted in the program, and over a hundred girls took part.

During the school year programs are presented; during the Christmas season at the High School and Steel Works Club for the children and special numbers arranged for the Chamber of Commerce, Women's Club, Kiwanis Club, etc.

THE TERPSICHOREAN CLUB (Continued from Page 105)

The sponsors of the club are Mrs. Phoebe Ann Kirby, Miss Lena Dickinson, and Miss Dorothy Westendarp.

A class in tap dancing that was organized by Miss Westendarp two years ago has proved very popular with about thirty-five or forty high school girls. The class meets regularly once a week, and programs are arranged during the year.

The beautiful accompanying of Miss Verna Bailey is to a great extent responsible for the success of the dancing class.

THE ART CLUB

Here is a club that backs all school activities by making bright and attractive posters. More than a hundred posters of various types have been made this school year.

One of the big responsibilities that the Art Club undertook this year was the sponsoring of the First Fine Arts Festival of Joliet which began May 5 and continued to May 11. It is hoped to have it an annual event. The part of the festival with which the Art Club was concerned was an exhibition of paintings by Joliet artists. One of the features of this was a reception tea sponsored by the club for the exhibiting artists.

The Art Club belongs to the Chicago Art Galleries Association which entitles it to have a painting in the school for a period of one month. At the end of the month it is sent back and a new one is sent to take its place. This club is the only high school art club belonging to this organization.

A scholarship fund is maintained by the club to help worthy students to continue their art career at an institution outside of high school.

The club, which has been in existence for three years, has made the year book illustrations during that time and hopes to continue doing so. It holds meetings each Monday night after school. During the meetings the members work on leather, batik, paintings, etc. Many parties and trips have been enjoyed by the members during the school year.

This club is under the able leadership of Mrs. Richardson. She has planned many interesting trips for the Art Club, one of which was a visit to the Chicago Art Institute. Her work for the club has been greatly appreciated by the students.

THE BOOSTER BOARD

Chairman ..... Robert Harris

Sponsor ..... Miss Helen Anne Wright

Boosters we are, and boosters we wish to remain. Our object is to take an active part in boosting the school activities by furnishing publicity through assemblies and other advertising mediums.

Although we are only a new organization, during the past year we have sponsored all the pep meetings and helped Miss Lee Daley sell tickets to the ten cent assemblies.

We planned pep assemblies during the football and basketball seasons. Our biggest one was before the district tournament, where we distributed yellow folders with the tournament squad pictures. We furnished the blue and gold pennants used by the rooters at the basketball games. With the aid of the Journalism Club we made the Joliet banners which were worn during the tournaments. Another assembly which we gave was to help advertise the concert given by the Illini band. We sponsored a program to start the "On to Denver" campaign for the band. We also helped to advertise the May Festival held here during Art Week, May 6th to 11th.

Our representatives are elected from each department and organization. They are Robert Harris, senior; Richard Jones, student council; James Bush, Boys' Athletics; Eunice Barnes, Girls' athletics; John Savage, junior; Elizabeth Wheeler, sophomore; Merna Terrill, freshman; Thomas Davidson, band; Carl Keck, choruses; Miss Helen Anne Wright, sponsor.

Le Cercle Francais of J.T.H.S. has now been in existence for about nine years. It is composed of all students taking French. The purpose of the club is to gain a greater appreciation and a better knowledge of the French language, customs, songs, poems, dress, dialects, and various other characteristics of different sections of France. All meetings are conducted in French so as to benefit the students by making them able to use the language more fluently.

At Christmas time a play was given and gifts were exchanged by the members. The name of the play was "La Galette Des Rois," by Josette Eugenie Spink. The cast chosen was as follows: Le Pere, Clifford Stange; La Mere, Margaret Graham; Jeanne, Marie Scheer; Edward, Gladys Thomas; Nicolas, Loretta Riley; Charles, Georgia Linter; Marthe, Marie Lutz; Le Cure, John Robertson; Les Mendiants, Ione Klat, and Marguerite Steffan.

DEUTSCHER VEREIN

The German club, the purpose of which is to acquaint students with German life and customs, as well as with the German language, opens its doors to all German students, whether beginning or advanced. The meetings are held in room 295 after school every first and third Tuesday of the month. Many pleasing programs are given at these meetings. At the time of the recent national election, the German club learned how the Germans hold elections and for what they vote. Another meeting celebrated the birthday of Karl Schurz, the great German-American statesman. At all of the meetings songs of all kinds are sung, particularly folk songs and patriotic songs. Often conversational games, including Quartettenspiel, which is just like the game of authors, are played.

The German club has parties also. A Hallowe'en party was given by Marjorie Fritz and Belle Hyman, in the home of the latter. A Christmas party was held in the regular meeting place, and a Valentine party was given by Linda Markgraf at her home.

The Industrial Drafting club, organized in September, 1927, is an organization formed for the purpose of bringing together students and teachers of mechanical and architectural Drafting. The club membership is composed of students pursuing four year courses in architectural and mechanical drafting.

Members in good standing must have a passing grade in their studies and must pay their dues regularly. Meetings are held on the first Thursday of each month. Programs are made up by the committeemen after various subjects are voted on by the members. Meetings usually consist of lectures, movies, field trips and illustrative talks, usually by people in outside industries where draftsmen are most likely to be employed.

Members have at their disposal a two hundred volume library and with an additional hundred pamphlets. The club, at present, consists of forty-five members.

The Joliet Township High School branch of the Girl Reserves was organized December 1928 because it was felt that a school club was needed to which every girl would be eligible for membership. The Girl Reserves, a national organization, was chosen because it encourages the kind of ideals, standards, and activities that girls of high school age admire and enjoy. Its purpose is to promote social life and to give every girl an opportunity for service in the school and in the community.

Each class has its own section with its officers and social activities. Meetings are held once a month. During the year two big social events take place, the Christmas party and the spring banquet. This year the Christmas party had to be omitted because influenza was so prevalent.

The girls have been quite successful in their first year, organizing three hobby groups. The rifle corps is under the supervision of Miss Dorothy Hudzietz, commercial instructor, and Miss Harriet Freeman, biology instructor. Miss Lois Hyde, English teacher, coaches the dramatic hobby group which admits only under classmen. The Hiking group is under the direction of Miss Marian McAnnally and Miss Mary Pendergast, English instructors. Next fall it is hoped that more hobby groups can be formed.

Miss Myra Mather, dean of girls, is in charge of the Girl Reserves as a whole with Mrs. Stella Henderson as general sponsor and the following faculty sponsors under her: Miss Glenna Hamill and Miss Lena Dickinson, senior sponsors; Miss Mabel Moon and Miss Harriet Peterson, junior sponsors; Miss Dorothy Hudzietz and Miss Mabel Whitten, sophomore sponsors; Miss Chloris Shade and Miss Roberta Brown, freshman sponsors.

GIRL RESERVES SONG—"Follow The Gleam"

To the Knights in the days of old,
Keeping watch on the mountain heights,
Came a vision of Holy Grail
And a voice through the waiting night,—
Follow, follow, follow the gleam,
Banners unfurled o'er all the world,
Follow, follow, follow the gleam
Of the chalice that is the Grail.

And we who would serve the King,
And loyally Him obey,
In the consecrate silence know
That the challenge still holds today.
Follow, follow, follow the gleam,
Standards of worth o'er all the earth,
Follow, follow, follow the gleam
Of the light that shall bring the dawn.

THE LUNCH ROOM CLUB

Chairman ..... Ellsworth Zinser
Faculty Advisor ..... Miss Helen Humphrey

Hello folks! What will you have today? As you look at this page you will remember what part we played in the daily routine of your school life; and we have all tried to be as courteous and efficient in serving you, this year, as possible.

The girls serve at the steam tables and ice-cream counters, and the boys are the cashiers.

The students work the 7-8-9-10 periods, or from 11:12 until 1:00, with time given them to eat their lunch, which is allowed them, in return for their services. The largest number of students eat the ninth period.

There are approximately 800 students and teachers served each day; however from 1500-1700 students eat lunch in the lunch-room, because many bring their lunch from home and sometimes buy only a hot dish or a glass of milk to eat with it.

Miss Helen Humphrey, of the Home Economics department has charge of the lunch room. It is run on a non-profit basis with prices only large enough to cover the cost.

The Joliet Model Aero club is a new club in our school, being organized on March 12, of this year, for the purpose of promoting model aviation in Joliet. This organization is open not only to high school students, but to any one over twelve years of age, who is interested in building model airplanes.

The club has a membership of about forty. Among the enthusiastic members of the club are two girls, and it is expected that the number will soon increase. The regular meetings of the club are on the first Tuesday of each month, and special meetings are held as seen fit by the officers. A small membership fee is charged to defray club expenses. Contests are usually held in the gymnasium on the Saturday following club meeting.

The club is very helpful to its members, because through it, they may purchase plans and materials at cost and thus reduce the expense of building their planes. There is also a committee to work on materials and models, testing them, and then giving their results to the club members in the best possible manner.

Some of the activities of the club are that it had a booth in the Joliet Boy Scout Merit Badge Exposition on April 19 and 20, at which many models were exhibited and flown. There was also a panel on the construction of propellers shown. The club had an out of doors picnic at which outside flying was staged.

HI-Y CLUB

The Hi-Y Club holds meetings every Tuesday night throughout the school year. At each meeting, following a supper, a program was held featuring an outside speaker or short talks by members of the club. The majority of the meetings were at the YMCA.

The Father and Son Banquet, held at the YMCA, was sponsored by the Hi-Y Club. Two hundred and sixty-four men and boys were present at this banquet.

The anual Mother and Son Banquet was held at the YMCA on April 16.

Sixteen boys and three leaders attended the Older Boys' Conference which was at Bloomington, Illinois, November 31 to December 2. Lawrence Seamans spoke at the opening meeting of the conference. Robert Harris, Robert Folk, and Lawrence Seamans spoke at churches in Bloomington.

The Hi-Y Club had many interesting speakers at its weekly meetings. Travel talks were given by Mr. A. Fairfield, Mr. S. S. Beath, Miss E. Barnes, and Miss M. Higgins. Mr. C. G. Thomson of the YMCA gave a talk on "YMCA Camps." Mr. W. W. Kirkland of Hull House gave a talk which was illustrated by movies on "A Summer Outing in the Wilds of Canada."

The "date" banquet was held on May 14 at the Universalist church. Rev. Mr. Macpherson spoke to the members of the club. The high school male quartet sang several selections.

THE JOURNALISM CLUB

President ..... Herbert Kellogg
Vice President ..... Leo Brown
Secretary ..... Ted Hendvick
Treasurer ..... Nelson Bush
Sponsor ..... Miss M. F. Hunt

The aim of the Journalism club is to promote the interest of the J High Journal and the Year Book.

The club is a new organization in the school. It was organized last February and is composed of members and former members of the journalism classes.

The pin chosen by the club is in the form of a matrix with a raised J on it. (A matrix is a brass plate used in a linotype machine). A guard showing the year that the member joined the club may, if so desired, be obtained with the pin.

The only social function that the club has had was a banquet held at the First Baptist Church. Mr. O. L. Anderson, telegraph operator at the Herald-News, was the speaker. Little has been accomplished in the club this year; but the members have great hopes in it for the future.

The J HIGH JOURNAL, the school newspaper, is published weekly by the students of the Joliet Township High School and Junior College, under the direction of Miss Mabel F. Hunt, journalism instructor.

With a successful history of three years, the J HIGH JOURNAL has become a school enterprise of interest to all the student body, for its purpose is to report and uphold all school activities.

VOL. 1 SPOTLIGHTS OF THE YEAR OF '29 NO. 1

INDIAN AMUSES STUDENT BODY

Native Indian Chief Gives Songs and Dances of Tribes

It was early morning in the great open prairies. There were a few scattered wigwams. A glowing fire was situated in the center, about which were a group of Indian men warming their tom-toms. A group of women with babies in their arms wer a short distance away. All were facing the east. The sun broke through the horizon, the dead silence was corrupted by songs and dances accompanied by the emotional beating of the tom-toms. The Indian has welcomed the sunshine into his day!

Such was the scene visioned by the students of Joliet High in an assembly held in the auditorium last Friday morning when Mr. Harold A. Loring, conductor of Indian music and Chief Evergreen Tree, a native Indian, who presented some of the fast disappearing phrases of the American Indian.

Mr. Loring has for the last twenty years been working among the Indian tribes of American taking down their music in order that it may be preserved for the coming generations. He gave an interesting talk on the life of the Indians, especially their songs, dances, and languages, both tongue and sign. The sign language practiced by the Indians proved to be of interest to the students. "Although the Indian songs seem rational to the average person," says Mr. Loring, "the Indian considers our modern jazz music barbaric."

A FEW WORDS FROM HAROLD "RED" GRANGE

"The main requirement in playing football is keeping yourself fit," are the words of Harold "Red" Grange. If a man is not physically fit he'll never be able to play football. He may play at the game but I mean really play the game as it should be played."

"The keeping of the rules is another big item in the game of football. If a fellow thinks that he can play the game according to his own principles he is entirely wrong, for he just has to play according to the rules set forth by previous players."

When asked if anyone could make a success at football he answered, "It all depends on the spirit and attitude he takes toward the game. If he gets hurt in a game and then shows that his nerve is lacking when he is in a tight place he will fail as a player, and likewise if he should be benched during a game and then begin to grumble abouut coach and about himself not getting a fair deal. The studios of the company are located at Cherry Hill. The first picture entitled "A Kid's Luck," written by Richard Barr, is now being filmed. Joseph Sontag is the director.

The high school members of the cast are: Mildred Woodcock, Mack Beaudoin, Richard Barr, Joseph Sontag, Harold De Zee, "Zeke" Searnaur, and Stanley Watson.

Mr. Llahibaksh Talks On Education in India Before Student Body

The National Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of all India, Mr. V. H. Ilahibaksh, spoke to the students about education in that country; in the auditorium Tuesday morning.

Mr. Ilahibaksh said, "About sixteen years ago, I spoke here in Joliet to a group of men, numbering quite as many as are assembled here today. These men (if I remember correctly) had their hair cut the same way and wore the same kind of suits. I did not say that 'I am very glad to see you here,' as I have said to you this morning."

As he spoke, Mr. Ilahibaksh used the high schools of the United States as a comparison to those of India. He said that they have courses and teachers such as we have in our schools, but not the many opportunities and conveniences. He said, that, 'Although they have co-education in the primaries and in the colleges, they do not have it in the high schools.

NOTED RADIO ANNOUNCER INTERVIEWED BY STUDENT

It was almost time for Quin Ryan to go on the stage; so I only had a few minutes to talk with him. If I had any inward quakings before I met him, I quickly forgot them when I was introduced to a very genial and altogether human Irishman.

I pounced on the desired information immediately.

"How did you happen to become a radio announcer, Mr Ryan?" I queried.

"It's a long story," he grinned. "But I can usually make long stories fairly short; so here goes. When I was in the class of '20 at Northwestern University, I wrote up "Whoopee News" and campus affairs for the Tribune. After a while I took on football news, too.

"I liked that kind of work, and later I began to work for the Tribune four days a week in the afternoons, still attending classes in the mornings. I made ten dollars a week. Then I worked seven days a week and my salary was raised to fifteen dollars."

Mr. Ryan chatted on, and I became so interested that I forgot I was a reporter interviewing the most famous radio announcer in the country. He told of the three years he spent conducting humor columns in

NEW SUPERINTENDANT TO TAKE UP WORK

Mr. W. W. Haggard, the new superintendent of Joliet Township High School, said in a recent interview that he wishes to extend his greeting to the entire student body.

Mr. Haggard took up his duties in Joliet in August after completing his work in Rockford where he was formerly superintendent of the High School. He is very pleased with the building and the faculty. He says, "I know of only one that I think may have cost more, and it is in Minnesota; I do not believe, however, that it is more beautiful than or as beautiful as this building." He also said, "This building, I believe, is around twenty years old." This statement was corroborated, and he continued saying that it did not look so old, and he believed would not show its age when it was fifty years old.

"I am entirely satisfied with the teachers. In fact everything I have met with so far has been both pleasing and satisfying," said Mr. Haggard.

Mr. Haggard and his family are residing on Max Street. His eldest daughter, Margaret, is attending Far-

Cheer after cheer went up for the Grand Master Master of March Men as he stepped from the train into a friendly mob.

Mid the cheers and clapping Sousa, leaning over toward Mayor Schring, shouted, "Oh, I am so glad to get back into this community where everyone is made to feel so much at home."

R. O. T. C. HONORED BY COLONEL ANDERSON

The R. O. T. C. battalion and Captain E. J. Booth were honored when the unit was inspected on Thursday, April 4, by Colonel A. V. T. Anderson, of the Sixth Corps Area, successor of Colonel Weeks who inspected the unit in 1928.

The R. O. T. C. won honor school last year, and Colonel Andeerson after inspection stated, "I think that the Joliet R. O. T. C. will have little trouble in winning an honor rating this year."

Colonel Anderson inspected the R. O. T. C. on the parade ground in the rear of the school. The battalion lined

Mae Murray Story

By Myra Ball, J. J. C.

In an all talking, all playing, all dancing show, Mae Murray, Princess M'Divani, starred in her short talkie feature, "A Personal Appearance" wheih she presented at the Rialto theater Thursday, April 24. Blonde, glamorous, alluring, like a silver dream princess, she danced while a screen of music flickered accompaniment. After the curtain had closed on the last picture, we were ushered backstage on location. In the projection room off of her dressing room we saw the real Mae Murray unreel.

"I am the same off stage as I am on," she smiled in welcome, "That is why people always recognize me. If I ride on a street car some one will yell, 'oh, there's Mae. Hello, Miss Murray.'" Believing that one should find his own individuality, Miss Murray designs her own clothes to express her personality. She is one of the best dressed women on the screen.

The scene was in color and sound. The crowded room with orange walls, filled by furniture, trunks, make-up boxes and scattered clothing, left

Vivian McMaster, Another Beauty, Wins for Joliet High School

Vivian McMaster, '29, has won the title "Miss Illinois", in the Great States Beauty contest. Vivian won this title by over 10,000 votes ahead of her nearest competitor bringing to Joliet the second beauty title. As the national contest at Atlantic City has been discontinued, Vivian is unable to compete for national honors which Lois Delander, '30, won last year.

After her victory of "Miss Joliet," Vivian competed with thirteen other beauties for the state title. They played at different theatres in Illinois, the last one was the Washington Theatre at Quincy, Illinois, where the contest tour ended and the votes were counted. Miss Bloomington was Vivian's nearest opponent, and Miss Galesburg won third place. Her victory entitles her to a $1,000 stage contract and an eight day trip to [illegible]

FORMER TRACK STARS MAKING GOOD RECORDS

Everett Ferguson, '25 former high school track star, is making good in track at the University of Iowa where he is a sophomore.

Ferguson ran his best quarter mile this season in 49.8 seconds. He is a member of the Iowa relay team this spring and to date is the fastest man on the crew.

During his high school career Ferguson was a member of the championship relay team which won over all contenders in Big Seven competitions.

According to reports, if one has an average of 90 or above for all of the time he has been in school he has an excellent chance of being picked for the honor society.

The honor roll for the last semester contains the names of 104 students. There are twenty-nine freshmen, twenty-one sophomores, twenty-eight juniors, and twenty-six seniors. The following received recognition:

CHARLES PADDOCK SPEAKS TO STUDENTS

Here he is—there he goes—the world's fastest human, Charley Paddock, three times Olympic runner, and holder of seven records. Fair complexioned with blue eyes of medium size wich a splendid form Charley is a preferred blonde. TWO AVIATION COURSES ARE OFFERED IN SHOPS

Two new shop courses are offered to shop boys who are interested in aviation.

There is a course in airplane engine mechanics, which will be offered to auto shop pupils in their Junior year. Because of the careful and high grade work that is done on airplanes, only those pupils who have good records will be permitted to specialize in this. The equipment to be used in this course is furnished by the United States Army Air Corps. The value of the equipment is stated as being $25,000. Any boys who are interested in the auto shop course.

PUBLIC SPEAKING CLUB

Ladies and Gentlemen! We, the members of the Public Speaking club, appear again. You have seen us many times during the past year, when we aided at the pep meetings, sold Eskimo pies at games, or gave plays.

All the members of the public speaking classes are eligible to belong to the club.

Our social functions this year have consisted of a banquet held at the Baptist Church at which the Rev. Van Zandt was speaker of the evening, and of an aviation dance held in the High School lunch room. We also had a picnic.

You probably remember the West Aurora pep meeting in which Joliet and Victory were married. All of the Big Seven conference were vying for Victory, but Joliet gained his favor. Then the wedding took place, and our pep meeting was a huge success. We also had charge of the pep meeting before the Rockford game. This one was a miniature basketball game. The score was tied 18-18 just before the final gun was to sound, when Joliet gained the ball, tossed it through the hoop and won the game 20-18. We gave a one act play "Back to Your Knitting" at the social hour vaudeville. The characters were: Prof. Graydon, Allan Sproat; Annabelle Gray, Dolly Barber; Mrs. Gray, Marion Young; Mr. Smith, Billy Howard; Miss Imogene Abernathy, Clara Schumm; Mr. Schramm, Stewart Hutchison; Mrs. Schramm, Marie Stellwagen; Clara Schramm, Beatrice Scotland; a detective, Kenneth Walker; a messenger boy, Bess Waters. The last pep meeting we were in was the Clean-up assembly. Ethel Johnson and Clara Schumm appeared as Law and Order and sentenced the ink bottle, waste paper, and the drinking fountain as pests. The dirty side was overcome by the clean side and chased off the stage, while the clean side gave several yells and a short drill.

Now we know you remember us. We thank you, ladies and gentlemen.

the class of 1929. We could even have a scene showing them in the halls as monitors. Our class started that. It will take at least 300 feet to show Major Bess Waters, Captain Hazel Hedges, Captain Mary Wheeler and Captain Mary Shaughnessy.

JANET: Oh, don't forget that we have a c'ose-up of Lois Delander, "Miss America" of 1927-28, and Vivian McMaster, "M'ss Illinois" of 1928, who were in our class. Don't you remember what a thrill we had when "Miss America" came back from Atlantic City and appeared in the assembly program which was given by the Public Speaking Club?

IRENE: Oh, that reminds me. The 132nd scene can show the new organizations which were formed during our four years here: The Girl Reserves, Terpsichorean Club, Latin Club, German Club, W.H.W., Social Science, and the Booster Board. Say, I've lots more notes here. Our class is one that surely did plenty of worthwhile things. The R.O.T.C. dance, the Girl Reserve Banquet, and the G.A.A. party will make grand looking mob scenes, won't they?

THE GIRL RESERVES RIFLE CLUB

Every Wednesday and Thursday nights after school a jolly group of girls in coveralls meet on the rifle range. There are twenty girls in all, and because so many cannot shoot on one night, they are divided into two groups of ten each—one of which meets on Wednesday and the other on Thursday. This organization is a branch of the Girl Reserves which was recently formed here.

The R.O.T.C. has been very kind and has furnished us with guns and three very capable instructors. They are Capt. Alburn Smith, Capt. Charles Schwab, and Second Lieut. John Robertson. Under their leadership the girls have progressed very rapidly. They will take three positions: sitting, prone, and standing. We intend to have matches before the end of the semester.

Our officers are Betty Robertson, president, and Marie Marwick, secretary. The other members of the club are Louise Carlson, Vera Vance, Rachel Bisching, Erma Agazzi, Evelyn Nathin, Dorothy Burgess, Marion Kohl, Elizabeth McCambridge, Gladys McAllister, Linda Markgraf, Winifred Kerr, Harriet Ross, Lois Baumgartner, Elfrieda Boenhart, Stella Pearson, Louise Schmekel, Fay Kramer, and Margaret Ripingill. Our sponsors are Miss Dorothy Hudzietz and Miss Harriet Freeman.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

The student council is an organization that aims to bring the faculty and the students closer together. It backs the ideas of the students for the betterment of the school.

Mr. H. V. Givens, biology instructor, and Mr. H. J. Atkinson, mathematics instructor, are the sponsors. Each home room has one representative excepting rooms 229, 299, 219, 253, and 337, which have two representatives because of their size.

The council this year sponsored the clean-up week activities in the school, and the band button campaign in the school was under its supervision. Each year the council sponsors the sale of Christmas seals and the distribution of the baskets to the poor. Now, it is making plans to assist in all school social affairs with the teachers and sponsors of other organizations.

Ye Merrie Stenos Club is composed of advanced shorthand and typewriting students, the A IV class. The club was organized for the purpose of further research into the training of stenographers, and incidentally, to be "merrie."

Its aim is to develop better business women through mental, social, and physical activities; to promote professional interest in their jobs, to retain the friendships formed in school, to encourage them to live an abundant, useful life of greater service to their community, and to inculcate high ideals of service in the minds of junior employees.

Meetings are held on Tuesday, every two weeks, with a business meeting and educational program, followed by a social hour, at which time roll call is taken by means of various shorthand rules, characters, etc.

The main events of the year were a penny sale, held on Wednesday, April 3; bakery sales, and a Christmas party, with the Junior Business training girls as guests. The most important event was an educational trip to Chicago, to visit the Women's World's Fair, and Marshall Field's store.

A committee to select a pin for the club was composed of Tilda Werner, chairman, Agnes Watters, Mary Vismara, and Mary Capra. The pin chosen repesented the school colors, together with the year the members were graduated, and the initials of the club.

Other standing committees of the club consisted of program, social, and flower committees. THE DEBATE CLUB

President ..... Cecilia Vail
Vice President ..... Werner Swain (deceased)
Secretary ..... Fannie Hyman
Sponsor ..... Josiah S. Watson

A number of the old W.H.W. students, having presumably mastered the "What and How of the World" and craving new worlds to conquer, organized themselves into a debate club this fall both to learn the technique of debate and to consider many topics of general interest for which no time could be found in regular classes. To a very large extent the club served as a forum, and the members took turns handling each side of some of the larger questions that they might understand them more fully and also learn to appreciate both sides of questions in general.

During the year the first team put on some public debates in Joliet and acquitted themselves very highly, so much so that their sponsor is looking forward to interscholastic victories next year. He desires to express sincere appreciation of the way the first team worked all year and of the high quality work they accomplished.

ORCHESTRA

President ..... Robert Snider
Vice President ..... Joseph Skorupa
Secretary ..... Margaret Wiswell

The orchestra is a wide awake organization which contains fifty-five members.

We played a number of times this year: for the Sousa banquet, for plays, teachers' convention, and the Steel Works minstrels.

We were guests at a social tea given by the Chamber of Commerce, with the Mayor, Mr. Sehring, and others as speakers.

One of our biggest undertakings this year was the part we had in the May festival.

The personnel of the Orchestra is as follows: Violins: Robert Snider, Joseph Skorupa, Raymond Gunderlack, Marian Brereton, Everett Nelson, Gladys Floyd, Richard Herkensmeyer, James Weigle, Constantine Dimas, Richard Freeze, Eugene Pennuto, Joe Baczuk, Harriet Kay, Sydney Herzog, Agnes Kelsner, Eileen Fetter, Lawrence Jack, Pauline Goldman, Christian Schwartz, Eugene Molnar, Sylvia Frank; Cellos: Margaret Wiswell, John Rix, Katherine Grant, Mary Maloney, Barbara Broughton, Betty Doxsee, Frederick Varek; Violas: Paul Sivitkis, Rose Herzog, Howard Spiess, Maurice Miller, William Planning, Minnie Slominsky, Charles Morrow, George Reichart; Basses: Floyd Schauland, Paul Jones, Lucille Carpenter, Dorothy Burgess; Cornets: Elsie Reitz, Louis Spires, Albert Thomas; Horns: Guydell Schwartz, Margaret Noel; Oboe: Edward Tomastic, Russell Smith; Flute: Philip Sidell; Bassoon: Tom Camp, Dorothy Jean Kaiser; Clarinets: Doris Wright, Karl Larson, Lorraine Hurst; Trombone: John Dulka; Drums: William Sheridan, Tom Bothwick; Piano: Lorine Lilya, Reva Levin.

THE BAND

THE BAND

After winning the national contest for the third time, thus gaining permanent possession of the National Trophy, the band settled down to its regular routine, but not for long.

Soon after school closed the Rotary club extended an invitation to the band to go to Minneapolis to play for the Rotarian Convention. We accepted, and we had a lot of fun. During the summer the Band went to Chicago to play under the stick of John Philip Sousa in the Auditorium. Mr. Sousa's own band was presenting a concert, and we appeared during the intermission, playing the march "Black Horse Troop" by Sousa, under his direction, and "Sabres and Spurs" also by Sousa under the stick of our own conductor, Mr. McAllister.

The national contest this year was held at Denver, Colorado. The band decided not to participate in the contest as a favor to the other bands, but we were invited to attend as a guest band, the highest honor ever to be given a band. We accepted, and work was begun immediately so as to raise $5,500 by May 23, the date set for the contest.

On February 12 the University of Illinois concert band gave a very pleasing program. Our band played "Fest" Overture and march "Stars and Stripes" combined with them. On April 4 we journeyed to Naperville and gave two concerts, one in the afternoon and one in the evening.

The band's annual classic concert was presented the night of April 5. The playing of a "Chant From the Great Plains," the required number for the National Contest 1929, received much praise from the many famous music masters who witnessed our concert. Mr. Grobel, noted composer and band leader, especially complimented us on our work.

The band conducted a button campaign on May 3, 4, in order to complete the $5,500 quota for the Denver trip. This was called "Opportunity Day," and everyone in Joliet was given a chance to help the band by purchasing these buttons at twenty-five cents and up. The students were allowed to get them the previous day at the high school for ten cents and up. "Opportunity Day" proved a big success.

On May 21 the band left for Denver amid the cheers of the multitudes who gathered to see us depart. While in Denver the boys were entertained by the Highlander boys' band, also a prize winner in their class. They treated us royally, feeding us, letting us share their homes, and showing us various points of interest.

The Band takes this opportunity of showing Mr. McAllister their appreciation and thanks for all he has done for them. Rah, Rah, Rah; Rah, Rah, Rah; Rah, Rah, Rah, McAllister! Who? McAllister!! Yeah!

After capturing six first places at the District Solo contest at Elgin, the boys went down to Urbana on April 25 to compete for state honors. As usual they ran away with the contest, taking six first places, two second places, and one third place. The boys played on Thursday night, and the winners were announced Saturday evening. Here are the first prize winners—Robert Harris, French Horn; Allan Sahler, Saxaphone; Edward Tomastic, Oboe; Tom Camp, Bassoon; Norman Mac Lean, Flute; Glenn Henderson, Cornet. Robert Hoffman had to play off a tie. Tom Camp beat his opponent, while Robert Hoffman lost to his.

RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS

The Reserve Officers' Training Corps is organized under authority of Acts of Congress.

The primary object of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps is to provide systematic military training at civil educational institutions for the purpose of qualifying selected students of such institutions as reserve officers in the military forces of the United States. This object is attained during the time that students are pursuing their general studies with the least practicable interference with their civil careers, by employing methods designed to fit men, physically, mentally and morally, for pursuits of peace as well as pursuits of war. This training has aided greatly in the development of better citizens.

All students of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps are given a thorough physical training. A respect for all lawful authority is inculcated in them. They are taught the fundamentals of the military profession, leadership, and the special knowledge required to enable them to serve efficiently in the various branches of the military service.

These students are not obligated by their R.O.T.C. service in any way for military service while in school or at any time afterward, even in the event of a national emergency.

JANET: Yes, they will be. Oh, we've got to have a close-up of Mr. Haggard, because our class is the first class graduated since he has been here. Where'll we put him? At the beginning? That'll be best, I think.

IRENE: Then we ought to have a full shot of Mr. Spicer and Mr. Deam. We could show them putting away their paddles, because such things weren't needed for our class. We shouldn't forget Miss Mather, either; but still she will be at all the parties and she'll be in all of those.

JANET: And "Miss Dickie's" picture will be taken with the Senior play cast and the Public Speaking Club. Miss Hunt will come in on the Journalism Club scene. Well, is that all?

IRENE: Oh, we've forgotten "Aunt Mary." And she helped us so much, too.

JANET: Well, when our scenario's written, we can have "Directed by Mary H. Pendergast." I guess that we have it pretty well outlined now. Oh, we'll have to have it typed because any real scenario will not be accepted unless it is typed.

IRENE: Say, our Senior class people can do the typing. Ethel Gumaelius, Dorothy Carlson, Alva Eib, Lillian Nelson, and Goldie Snodgrass can write between fifty and sixty words a minute. We ought to have one of these girls do it for us, if they will.

JANET: Oh, there goes the bell. Can you work again tomorrow?

IRENE (as they go out): I guess so. Don't lose any of those notes, Janet.

The College Club has enjoyed a very successful year, and all are agreed that the programs have been enjoyable, instructive, and entertaining. Everyone has been busy. The sponsors, Miss Barns, Miss Dickinson, the faculty and the students themselves have all worked to make the club a greater success than before.

The officers for both semesters deserve hearty commendation. The programs for the year were as follows:

October: an organization meeting.

November: an "election" of which Mr. Turman was the faculty sponsor. Members of Mr. Turman's Political Science class took part. Robert Spangler and Joseph Dwyer spoke on the merits of their respective parties. Dick Calosio had charge of the meeting.

December: A Schubert Memorial Program with Miss McAnally the faculty sponsor and Frances Green the student assistant. Mr. Brockett had charge of the musical program.

January: Joe Dwyer was the student in charge and Miss Hyde was the faculty sponsor. The program was a lecture on Europe by Miss Higgins.

ROBERT SPANGLER

In memory of Robert Spangler whose loss is deeply felt by his many friends and acquaintances.

His genial smile, his courteous manner, his straightforwardness, his ability to stick to the task that was once begun all united to make him, "A gentleman and a scholar."

His influence in the College Club and the Student Council, as well as in the classroom and about the building will not soon be forgotten.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The college student body looks with interest on the student council, as it is the college's only student representative organization. The past year has been a most satisfactory one from the standpoint of accomplishment. A few of their most important achievements are: designing a new and larger letter for college athletics, selling of season tickets for basketball, adopting a student activities fee, and sponsoring the tag day in the college for the "On to Denver" campaign. They also made a plea for a recreation room and study room other than the college library.

The council is composed of a member from each organization and the presidents of both classes.

The officers for the past year were: chairman, Russell Attaway; vice chairman, Helen Rice; and secretary, Richard Calosio. The council is sponsored by one member of the faculty, Mr. Turman.

The Playing World

Over quaint teacups the fair ladies chat
Speaking of paintings and late Paris hat.
Men in white flannels race over the court
Forgetting dull drudge in the gay world of sport.

Off in the summer to Venice and Rome--
Little they think of making a home;
Back in the winter at breath-taking pace,
Then off again to some fashionable place.

Playing and spending, and playing some more,
Homes in the mountain and yachts on the shore.
Gay low-slung roadsters for young debutantes,
And staid limousines for the portly old aunts.

Sinking in luxury, thoughts far from pain,
They see not the beggar who stands in the rain,
I wonder does happiness fill up their day,
Those people whose worries are filled up with play?

—Mary Elizabeth Allgaier.

The Tragedy of Love

Long years ago, in feudal times
(According to our teacher's tale)
The knight was dressed in heavy suit
Of armor, and with coat of mail.

The iron clothes weighed down his frame
That when he fell, he there must lie
And wait for someone kind enough
To help him, who was passing by.

Sir John, one day, went forth to seek
His lady-love to win her hand;
With pleas and passion he set forth
His love, but all did she withstand.

She would not listen to his words,
He threw himself upon his knees,
And cried: "Dear heart, sweet love,
divine,
My love for you will never cease!"

She left him there and walked away
He watched her leave with tense despair;
If no one came to help him up
You may still find him lying there.

—Sandie.

The Lake

The moonbeams lay over the lake
Caressing each ripplet with silver.
The breeze was only half awake
As it made the water quiver.

White water lilies floated there
With dainty beauty, gentle grace;
A perfume faintly filled the air
As each blossom lifted its face.

To keep this lake from the world away
A curtain of trees 'round it was drawn,
And crickets seemed to quietly say,
"This is the throne of night till dawn."

—Margaret Taylor.

WHAT LIBRARY PROBLEMS ARE DOING FOR ME

By Ruth Cooper

The fact that my problem must be found was impressed deeply upon me. It was "Name and locate the oldest living tree; give age." I sat in the library with volumes on the table around me. Hearing the tramp of feet, I looked up. Coming toward me were five huge men reaching nearly to the ceiling. As I glanced at them, I suddenly realized that they were the five tallest men I had been looking for all the previous week. What a relief! Maybe I would get some credit for discovering them, even though it was a little late. I called to one.

"Please, sir, will you gentlemen tell me who you are and how tall you are?"

"Certainly, young lady," he said, and told me all that I wanted to know.

"Now that you have our names, you might tell me yours and favor me by showing me around your delightful building," he added.

I rose and motioned him to follow as I left the library. We walked down the hall to the gym. I thought he would appreciate that because he would not have to stoop. We got almost inside the door before I noticed the vast crowd of people. What was the excitement? They were all queerly dressed, having bright colored garments draped about them. One aged man come over to us.

"What is happening?" I asked him.

"Silence, miss. The cheering has not begun yet. Apostle Paul is to be beheaded." He spoke and withdrew into the midst of the crowd.

So this was where he was beheaded. All the hours I had spent trying to find that out. My companion seemed anxious to stay, but I dragged him out in a hurry. Walking down one of the corridors I noticed one of my clasmates, Jim. He was counting aloud and pointing at something I could not see. He looked very odd. It was a pitiful sight.

"Jim, what are you going?" I asked.

"Shh! Now I've lost track. I'm counting the volumes in the library at Urbana. Can't you see?"

I shook my head in despair. It was too bad it had affected him that way. I led the way to the auditorium. As we stepped inside I saw coming up the aisle a badly bent and knotted tree. It had a long beard. There was my tree at last! What luck! Leaving my companion I dashed up to the tree.

"How old are you and where do you live?" I was breathless from excitement.

The tree gathered me in his leafy arms and gently patted my head.

. . . .

I looked up. Instead of seeing his bearded face, I saw Miss Dillman standing over me.

"Ruth, if you have no work to do, you had better go down to the nurse to sleep," she said.

No work? Oh, my tree!

College Life in all its glory.

Second Row—Tracey, Coach Wills, Snyder, Crombie

J. J. C. BASKETBALL

This year was fated to be a lucky one for J.J.C. basketball. In former years the team has lost practically every one of its games, but this year the team won nine out of fifteen.

The season opened on December 15 with Joliet playing Thornton College; the former emerged victorious by a score of 36-23. Although our team looked green and were rather inexperienced, daily practice soon brought about the desired results. A break of the game favored LaSalle-Peru in the next game, and our team lost 19-16.

To start the New Year right the J.J.C. team annexed another victory over Aurora on January 4; the score finished at 24-8. Captain Calosio played a splendid floor game, and Crombie was high point man with four baskets to his credit.

The next night our Coach, A. A. Wills, took the team to McKinlock where they again came out on top with the score at 28-18. Those who won this game were Slack, Calosio, Attaway, Henderson, Smyder, Crombie, Zelko, and Tracy. Berst, the star center, was sick and his services were greatly missed.

Another victory followed over McKinlock on January 11 on our own floor. The game was nip and tuck all the way through. Joliet finally put over the winning points, and the final score was 29-27.

This string of victories was soon ended; for Crane, with a team that could have defeated most college teams, handed the college quintet a drubbing of 37-17. The speed of their attack was unbelievable, and although Joliet played good ball, Crane played better.

First Row—Zelko, Leiss, Calosio, Snyder, Robinson, Slattery.
Second Row—Lipsey, Brutka, Crombie, Nolan. DiLorenzo, Berst, Rowley, Petruska and Coach Wills.

J. J. C. BASEBALL

With only three veterans available, the prospects of the Joliet Junior College were rather dismal. These three, Berst, Liess, and Smyder formed the nucleus around which Coach Wills centered his hopes. His hopes have not been in vain, for the Junior College team is now among the leaders of the college conference.

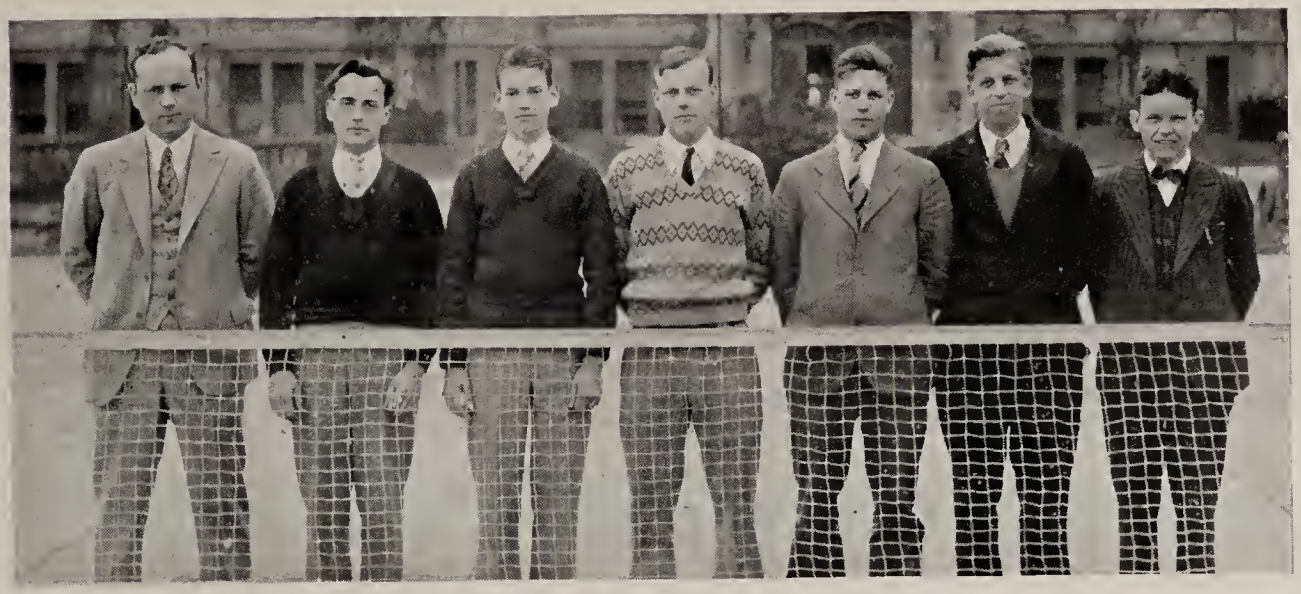
The conference started off with Lisle to whom we dropped an 8-3 victory. This being our first game, the loss was probably due to stage-fright, for the game was lost through errors.

North Park fell as the first victim to our team by a score of 8-3. Literally speaking, this game was played in a sea of mud. The next game was with Crane which required no effort, for this was our game by a forfeit. Chicago Normal's scalp was next added to our collection by the score of 1-0. At Morton the big guns of the Junior College were released, and after the smoke had cleared away we were victorious by a count of 15-11, due to fact that 25 hits were collected.

And to sum it up there was room for improvement at the beginning of the season; after those necessary improvements were made the Joliet Junior College team took its place among the leaders.

Liess, the only experienced pitcher on the squad, started the season by striking out 20 men in the first two games. He did not keep up this record but always pitched an intelligent game of ball. Deliberate and machine-like, he took the whole pitching burden on his own shoulders.

The leading hitter of the squad was Dick Calosio who, although playing his first year of baseball, batted over .600. In the Morton game he got a home run, two doubles, a single, a walk and scored four runs. Smyder, Berst and Slattery batted around .400 for the season.



Kirby, Switzer, Ricker, Grohne, Slack, Van Zandt, and Tracy.

J. J. C. TENNIS

During the 1929 season the J. J. C. tennis team won five of the twelve matches played: three on Joliet courts and two on Lisle courts.

Saturday, May 18, the entries in the conference matches at Oak Park were defeated by Crane (6-0) (6-3). In the doubles, Slack and Tracy of Joliet lost to Smith and Jones of Crane in straight sets (6-0) (6-3).

Friday, May 24, they played in Lisle where they lost three of the five matches played. In the singles, Ricker of Joliet won from Maczkow (7-5) (6-3). Crombie of Joliet lost to Raztas of Lisle (6-4) (6-0). In the doubles Slack and Tracy of Joliet lost to Maczkow and Picha of Lisle (6-4) (7-5). Henderson and Switzer of Joliet were defeated by the Raztas-Yrbanak combination of Lisle (6-4) (3-6) (6-4).

On Saturday, May 25, the J. J. C. team won three of five matches played against North Park on the Joliet courts.

In the doubles Ricker and Van Zandt of Joliet won from Matson and Norwall of North Park (6-1) (7-5), while Switzer and Henderson of Joliet lost to Lilyengren and Lundlon of North Park (6-4) (6-3). In the singles Ricker of Joliet won from Norwall of North Park (6-4) (6-4). Van Zandt of Joliet won straight sets from Matson (6-3) (7-5), while Switzer of Joliet lost to Lilyengren of North Park (6-2) (6-4).

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

President ..... Frances Green
Vice President ..... Carrie Spencer
Sport Manager ..... Kathryn Heath

The W.A.A. took great strides this year in promoting athletics among the girls of the college. Early in the fall the members of the association enjoyed a weinie roast at Pilcher Park, and under the supervision of Miss Westendarp, the officers for the year were elected. Our new leaders were ambitious, and immediately began to plan ways and means to enable the busy Junior College girl to go out for the various sports.

Hockey held a particular interest for a great many of the girls, and we had no difficulty in forming a team. As often as the clemency of the weather would permit, the teams engaged in interesting and exciting inter-class games.

With the approach of winter and frigid temperatures, W.A.A. put their hockey sticks away and began basketball practice. A great many aspirants reported for the try-outs, and first and second year college teams were formed. The practices were limited, and often interferred with, due to the late classes of many of the team members, but the college teams were chalked up in the inter-class tournament, and we take the liberty to say that they made a respectable showing. At the end of the tournament a Junior College All-Star team was picked to battle the High School Stars. Defeat did not cause J.J.C. to lose courage, and we feel sure that next year will find our team stronger than ever.

Novelties

One of the high lights of this Feature Section is the "Most Beautiful Baby Contest." Pictures for this contest were submitted by fond parents who hope to gain fame and fortune for their favorite "chips."

"THE YOUNGEST"

The college play, the brilliant comedy, "The Youngest," by Philip Barry, the author of "You and I," "Sua Graden," and several other Broadway successes and favorites in college circles, was given on December 14, to a large and enthusiastic audience. The proceeds which are used for the college loan fund, helped materially to increase its budget.

The play is an ingenious variation of the Cinderella theme, in which the hero, a downtrodden son, comes into contact with a charming busybody. The youngest eventually learns to assert himself, and turns upon his oppressors in splendid style. It is a very human and appealing comedy of contemporary American life. All the cast were "stars" and well deserve the remark—"It was the best college play ever given." It was directed by the dramatic coach, Miss Lena M. Dickinson with the following able cast, which was assisted by Hiram Converse and his splendid orchestra, and Robert Stock and "Mac's" band members in the incidental music.

INTERVIEWS OF AFTER LIFE

Vera Higbee: Honeymoon on Thousand Islands. See the world. Residence in Winnetka. A Paris or Reno divorce and—a life of peace and quiet.

Ray Harvey: Time, September 40, 1987; Place, White House, Springfield, Ill.; Occupation, Spectator and husbandman; Past, Eventful and devoted to amatory proclivities with the best girl in the world; Future, hopes of graduating from J.J.C. by 1999.

Lois Rix: Spend a perfectly good youth scampering around after mon homme, a scissors grinder or a man with a mustache preferred, and ending up a disillusioned old spinster whose only end is the old maid's establishment with Mabel Whitten, and our cats, and parrots and memories—that's all.

Howard Cohenour: I am going into the new and highly specialized occupation of building something that will be able to fly off in all directions at one time. Then I believe that I will be an ardent follower of Ty Cobb and try reeling for whales in the middle of the Sahara Desert.

Mary Manning: After leaving this dear old J.J.C. I intend to practice pedagogy until I have saved enough of my hard-earned iron men to purchase overstuffed furniture for the J.J.C. Library so that the future students may do what I've always wanted to do. The only reservation is that during "Review Periods" the stuffed chairs will be reserved for Lit. students only.

Ed Crombie: After serving my sentence as a student in this school of experience, a position, not a job, awaits me—that of being President of the Humane Society of the Bachelors of Mars, Inc. My work will deal largely with dumb animals—therefore the opposite sex will feel the result of my influence and work.

Rose Elkins: Notice!!! Free Lunch and A Cozy Undisturbed Corner. This will be home to all heart-broken lovers in distress. Ray Harvey and Vera Higbee will be the charter members. I will be pleased to welcome anyone so qualified at 1940 Queensboro, Island of Utopia, S.E. Jupiter.

Elmer Rowley: I intend to follow in the footsteps of the members of "The Weary Willy Club" and roam all around the world so that when my hair turns gray and my whiskers develop somewhat I may come home to my little village town and be the champion "story teller" at the General Store. Nothin' to do but chaw terbaccer and spin yarns,—O! Boy!

Marg. O'Connell: Upon receiving my pig skin from my alma mater, I will enter the school of life feeling it my duty to set a good example for those whom I'm leaving behind—such people as Barb Mahoney, Alberta Macy and Be De-Filippi. I feel that I should have a guiding hand to carry out their original desire to attend all shows at the Rialto.

Bill McGuffin: From early youth there has been impressed on my young mind the NEED OF A GREAT REVOLUTION. I shall start a movement for shorter hours, better pay and cleaner working conditions for the poor street sweepers. Wish me luck!

NOBLESSE OBLIGE II

Come, folks! Let's go for a long airplane ride with the Noblesse Oblige II, the first year French Club! We start the trip September Seventeenth. President Raymond Harvey, Vice President Ruth Frobish, Secretary and Treasurer, Carrie Spencer, program committee Richard Spangler and Madoline Gilbert, are the officers of the plane. Ah! we're off—class work has begun. Because of such a large group there are two sections for class. We meet two days a week the first semester for singing the French songs of custom, "Cadet Rouselle" and "Rest Avec Nous." Our plane members are guests at the airport, the Chamber of Commerce, sponsored by the second year French Club, also under the direction of Mrs. Babcock. We indeed enjoy this stop very much.

Oh! Noel est ici. Our plane again makes a stop for another social affair. We have a lovely Christmas party at which we give a play, "La Galette Des Rois." It is a story of old French customs still current in the celebration of the Twelfth Night. On the eve of Epiphany, the members of a family or friends come together at dinner or supper to eat a cake in which is hidden a bean or other token. The cast is as follows: Le Pere, Mlle. Gilbert; La Mere, Mlle. Seamans; Jeanne, Mlle. Barbour; Le Cure, Monsieur Spina; Edward, Mlle. Blackwood; Charles, Mlle. Ege; Marthe, Mlle. Rice; M. Papillon, Mlle. Frobish; Mme. Bonallet, Mlle. McCowan, and Les Mendicants (beggars) are the rest of the class.

In April we are present at the presentation of "Les Precieuses Ridicules," given in the high school auditorium by the second year class.

First Row—Saunders, Heath, Norris, Gruenwald, Carter, Schwab, Clark.
Second Row—Allagier, Leighton, McGuffin, Mattei, Madame Babcock, Watts, White, Klint, Elfter, Long, Peck, Mahoney.

FEYTEL IX

President ..... George Churchill
Vice President ..... Irene Carter
Secretary-Treasurer ..... Nina Norris
Chairman of Program Committee ..... Genevieve Gruenwald
Sponsor ..... Madame Babcock

"Faites attention!" The soldiers of the Feytel IX squad of the French regiment gathered at the parade ground September 17, 1928 for the purpose of choosing officers to lead their activities and determine their line of march for the year. Those elected were Captain, George Churchill; 1st Lieutenant, Irene Carter, and recording officer Nina Norris. Genevieve Gruenwald was appointed chairman of a committee to arrange entertainment for the regular meetings around the campfire. Her assistants were Josephine Mattei and Nick Elfter.

The soldiers marched to the strains of "Cadet Rousselle" and gathered at the assigned rendezvous for the first campfire. The program there roused the spirits of each member and urged them toward further accomplishments in regard to their daily duties. The next meeting was in the form of a Christmas entertainment where a French solo was offered and French games were played after which gifts were exchanged among the "buddies". At this point the Captain put in his resignation and command was taken by Erma Schwab. The Feytel squad received orders from headquarters to prepare a "skit" for presentation before the battalion at a large campfire meeting. "Les Presieuses Ridicules" by Moliere was selected. Parts were assigned each soldier and the squad added another streamer to their guidon for special merit.

A MONOLOGUE

By Mary K. Manning

Scene:—On the Threshold of Life.

Time:—On the eve of graduation.

Characters:—Father Time and the 1929 J.J.C. Graduates.

Father Time:—Now you are going out into the world after spending two rollicksome years in Junior College. Since, "as ye sow, so shall ye reap," I am going to assign you your life work in accordance with your conduct in the past.

First, Russell Attaway—You have been too vain during your sorrowful sojourn at J.J.C.; so you must spend the remainder of your days in Rockdale.

Mary Bagnell—You have spent too much time trying to make your hair grow long; you must start a fad for shaved heads among women.

Carl Berst—You have been too active; so I am going to give you something easy to do; hunt alligators in Alaska.

Richard Calosio—You have spent so much of your time working on deep intricate problems, that I am going to assign you one as your life-work; bottle up the pig's squeal at the Stock Yards.

Mary Clark—Your serious, careworn expression is ideal for a minister's wife; find him at once.

Howard Cohenour—I have chosen you to help Santa Claus make toys at the South Pole.

Fred Condo—Your experience in chemistry should aid you greatly in working out a formula to cure lovesickness.

Edward Crombie—You are to be a guard at Nowell Park swimming pool to keep the fishes from drowning.

Emil di Lorenzo—You must go to England and assist the Prince of Wales in falling off his horse.

Rose Elkins—I am sure that you will be very successful in giving permanent waves to the savages in Australia.

Genevieve Gruenwald—Your past experiences will aid you considerably in lecturing to college students on "The Drastic Results of Too Much Studying."

Raymond Harvey—You have been too popular with the girls; so you must buy a ranch in Texas and raise chickens.

Vera Higbee—Your peaches and cream complexion will be valuable in advertising Palmolive Soap; in this way you will aid many in keeping their schoolgirl complexion.

Josephine Keltie—You must go to WLS to fiddle for the barn dances; this will give you a wonderful opportunity to display your musical talent.

Hazel Klint—You must join the Salvation Army and learn how to utilize the holes in doughnuts.

Anna Koerner—I am sure that you will be successful telling bed-time stories to the kiddies.

Verna Lawrence—You must assist Miss Dillman in serving ice cream in the library every Friday afternoon.

Dorothy Leighton—You must become a lawyer to defend persons who maliciously kill flies.

Virginia Long—You must leave at once to model fur coats at the equator.

Howard McCowan—You must write Scotch jokes for the minstrel shows.

William McGuffin—A good politician is needed in Chicago; I have picked you as the man to fill that position.

Mary Manning—You will soon be rich and famous if you join the circus as a fat lady.

Margaret O'Connell—I am going to give you a very pleasant task, that of tasting soap in a soap factory.

Marian Paige—A very profitable business will be selling licenses for hot dogs.

Lillian Peck—If your name rings true, you will make a good grocer.

Althea Peterson—You have been too athletic the last two years; you must take up a position as a mattress tester.

Lois Rix—Leave on the next train for Africa to take animal pictures for Mr. L. J. Wells' insect collection.

Nobel Rompel—A fitting position for you would be that of a life saver at Michigan Beach.

Elmer Rowley—In order to get a much needed rest, you must become a flagpole sitter.

Erma Schwab—As a cabaret dancer you will attain fame.

Steve Smyder—Open up a factory for the manufacture of left-handed monkey wrenches.

Carmen Steed—You have been so successful in standing still, that I am sure you will make a good tight-rope walker.

Irene Storm—Enter a school of aviation so that you may learn to swim the English Channel.

Mary Sykes—You are to be proprietor of the Goodie Shop and sell only school supplies and postage stamps.

Maurine Blake Taylor—It is your duty to remain an old-maid and set an example for men to follow.

Ralph Tieche—Make yourself popular by selling ear-muffs to those who wish to study in the Junior College library.

Julia Wallace—Enter the University of Illinois agricultural college and train to be a doctor to poison ants.

Allan Ward—You must become an assistant to Bob Brooker, who needs help caring for the congested traffic in the J.T.H.S. halls.

Pearl Watts—You must become an undertaker to bury dead flowers.

And, Dorothy Younghusband—set to work growing flowers in Cleopatra's Garden.

TAKING IT EASY....!

THOSE older men you see "taking it easy" and enjoying life, didn't get their money by gambling, playing the races, or in a "get-rich-quick" scheme.

If you could have seen them 10 or 15 years ago, you would see that they worked hard for every dollar they got, but they showed their wisdom by banking a part of their earnings.

There is no patent on this, it is free to everyone, and if you would be like them at their age, come in and open an account in our bank. It is never too late to start a bank account.

WHAT PART OF

YOUR HERALD-NEWS

IS OF MOST INTEREST TO YOU?

THE front page? The society page? Sports? Woman's page? Pictures? Editorial? Cartoons? There is a part of nearly every page that is practical, helpful, full of news—the advertising. Do you interest yourself in reading it? You should.

Here is news of immediate value to you. Comforts—necessities—luxuries—merchandise every bit of which gives you a dollar's worth of value for every dollar you spend.

In the advertisements is information of practical worth. Reputable merchants bring wares for your inspection that are soundly made and of known, proved value. The statements they make they are willing to sign—knowing that each statement must be truthful, for their reputation, standing in the community, and business prestige is at stake.

It pays to read advertisements. For, in this part of your Herald-News, you can find where your money can be spent to best advantage.

COLLEGE BASKETBALL (Continued from Page 161)

The next week the team went to Pleasant View. Mr. Wills had evidently accomplished something during the week, for the team won by the score of 55-39.

At Concordia, the next night, Joliet met another defeat losing 36-30. Concordia was so hot that they couldn't miss, and our team came without the bacon. Zelko showed his ability very well in this game.

On January 26 Chicago Normal played the team on our floor, and "Fizz" Wills and his five warriors sent them home very down-hearted with their reputation behind them, the score being 22-15. This was the first time Joliet had ever beaten Chicago Normal.

Concordia came to Joliet on February 2, and the revenge was sweet; the score was 33-27 in favor of the purple. The team worked like a clock, and the offense was a veritable stone wall.

Four days later Joliet again ment Crane on their ground. Crane came out on top with a score of 49-39. The last half of the game saw Joliet outscoring Crane 2 to 1, but the margin piled up in the first half was too great to overcome.

The team played Pleasant View again on February 8 and beat them to the tune of 38-11.

February 13 proved unlucky, and the team suffered another defeat by Chicago Normal, the score being 28-30. Calosio starred for the losers along with the help of Wilson, Crombie, Berst, Slack, and Henderson.

Next the team went to LaSalle-Peru and trounced their best team by a score of 18-17. Henderson and Crombie were high point men for the winners.

The season ended disastrously, for the purple suffered a defeat at the hands of Thornton, 40-25.

FREEPORT

The Blue and Gold minors met Freeport in their first home conference game. Booker led the attack that resulted in an 18-0 victory for the local lights. Booker, Brown, and Maxwell scored the winning points of the game.

ELGIN

Joliet's second trip was to Elgin. The ponies were unable to get going, and as a result the Maroon ponies scored twice in the first period and three times in the last period. Ashman of Elgin won the game, scoring three touchdowns. The final score was Elgin 31 and Joliet 0.

EAST AURORA

After a week's rest the lights seemed to be back in stride again. They came through with a 6-0 score, and they seemed to have easy going against the Aurora ponies. Joliet played a fast game and completed 16 first downs to East Aurora's 4.

WEST AURORA

Fighting through two feet of mud and an almost steady rainfall the Blue and Gold lights lost a hard fought game to West High by 2-0. Joliet threatened to score several times, but they lacked the punch to put it over. Joliet came back in the last quarter when Oliver hammered the Aurora line until he reached the five-yard mark, but the gun sounded and saved the day for West High.

DE KALB

Celebrating their last 1928 football game, the Joliet lights easily defeated the DeKalb Barbs 13-0. Brown scored the first "chalker" for Joliet in the first period by falling on a blocked kick. Oliver and Booker turned out their usual good quality football. Oliver scored the final touchdown of the year when he plunged into the end zone from the eight yard line. Booker added the extra point with a drop kick.

February: Mr. Blooha, an African, was the speaker. Katherine Heath was the student in charge and Miss Dillman was the faculty sponsor. This meeting was very entertaining and very instructive.

March: Dr. Walter H. Macpherson spoke. Erma Schwab was the student in charge.

April: A dramatic program was given. Miss Dickinson was the faculty sponsor and Dick Calosio was the student assistant, a French play sponsored by Mrs. Babcock, a German Play sponsored by Miss Mather, and an English play sponsored by Miss Dickinson, made up the program.

May: The program consisted of a Mock Graduation Day. The faculty sponsor was Mr. Wills and the student in charge was Mary Bagnell.

The wish of all the members of the College Club goes out to the members of next year's club for as splendid co-operation to keep the high standard set this year by the College students.

"Military life is not all work" remarked one of the cadets on returning from an entertainment where several members of the squad had staged "Marraine de Guerre" for the benefit of the other soldiers. Practice in French military tactics was continued until May 28, 1929 when the squad disbanded.

JOLIET -:- ILLINOIS

A GREAT deal of the joy of life consists in doing perfectly, or at least to the best of one's ability, everything which he attempts to do. There is a sense of satisfaction, a pride in surveying such a work—a work which is rounded, full, exact, complete in all its parts—which the superficial man, who leaves his work in a slovenly, slipshod, half-finished condition, can never know. It is this conscientious completeness which turns work into art. The smallest thing, well done, becomes artistic.

—WILLIAM MATHEWS.
